PARADE AND FIELD DAY FEATURES OF MEET

Grand Officers of State Are Here to Take Part In Big Gathering

By P. M. CONNELLY
Of The Evening News Staff.

Knighthood, as in days of yore, held forth today in Glendale. Like in the time of Arthur and his table round, when strong men went forth to battle, filing through the dingy little streets of early England with their armor glistening and shining in the sunlight before they sallied forth, so more than 1000 uniformed Knights Templar, venerating sons of the ancient Knights, filed in grand parade through the down town streets of Glendale this afternoon prior to the annual field day competitions to be held later at the athletic field at Harvard Junior High school.

Honor guests of the day were grand officers of the state of California who reviewed the parade from a vantage point along the line of march.

They are: Charles Malcolm, grand commander; W. C. Hassler, deputy grand commander; A. J. Delamere, grand generalissimo; George Burnam, grand captain general; A. J. Copp, grand senior warden; Robert B. Gaylord, grand junior warden; William H. Thomas, grand prelate; W. A. Knights, grand treasurer; Thomas A. Davies, grand recorder; James L. Langford, grand standard bearer; Harry D. Burroughs, grand sword bearer; Aubrey R. Parks, grand warden. Another notable who viewed the parade from the reviewing stand was Perry Weidner, grand senior warden of the

TWO DEATHS IN TRAGIC MYSTERY

Son of Millionaire Ends His Life Following Suicide Of Beautiful Girl

SAN MATEO, Oct. 25.—A coroner's verdict of suicide was today expected to close a tragic chapter of life. Two weeks ago beautiful Marilouise Chambers, 17, shot and killed herself because of jealousy of her stepmother. Last night Frank Ross Chambers, Jr., said to be the son of a New York millionaire, shot and killed himself.

To officials investigating the death of Miss Chambers, it is said, Chambers revealed that he was not the girl's father and had divorced his first wife, her mother, who now resides in Washington.

Both Used Drugs

It was developed at the coroner's inquest that Miss Chambers was addicted to a drug, and, according to authorities, Chambers likewise used the drug.

Chambers, following the suicide of his supposed daughter, sent his beautiful 19-year-old-second wife to Los Angeles, closed his beautiful home here and moved into the apartment Miss Chambers had occupied. He later turned part of his business establishment into bachelor quarters.

Orchardist Freed For Killing Youth Who Stole Fruit

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 25.—An orchardist may be excused from protecting his fruit with a shotgun, according to a verdict rendered here by a jury in the trial of Burton G. Hamblin, who today stood acquitted of the charge of manslaughter growing out of the killing of a 17-year-old youth. Hamblin's defense was that he fired to frighten the boy raiders of his apricot orchard, not to kill them. The jury took the view that the rancher had a right to guard his own property.

GOVERNMENT LEADER IS BANISHED

Chinese Military Power Is Ousted; President Kun Resigns, Report

By JOHN GOETTE
For International News Service.

PEKING, Oct. 25.—Wu Pei Fu, military backer of the central government and until this week the most powerful figure in all China, was today virtually banished from Chinese Turkestan.

A presidential mandate by Taso Kun declared the war against Chang Tso Lin ended, abolished the army for the suppression of rebels and appointed Wu director of waste lands in Turkestan.

Peking remained peaceful today but many heads were swinging from the gates of the city to tell the fate of those who attempted looting.

President Quits, Claim

President Kun was believed to have sent his resignation to parliament this afternoon, following the en bloc resignation of the cabinet.

Feng Yuh Siang, while denying any intention of mixing in politics, insisted that the cabinet remain in office to act in place of the president, should the parliament accept his resignation.

Parliament, by a large vote, approved the coup d'etat of Feng, indicating it will support his demands for reorganization of the government.

Feng today ordered the Peking-Mukden railroad to resume traffic to Tien Tsin on Monday.

State Yields Quarter Of U. S. Fruit Supply

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—California is producing one-fourth of America's fruit supply and figures revealed today by E. E. Kaufman, crop reporter for the state and federal departments of agriculture, show 7,300,000 bushels of apples now being harvested, 7,000,000 bushels of potatoes, 5,000,000 bushels of rice, $1,500,000 tons of grapes, 24,000 tons of walnuts, 100,000 tons of figs, 117,000 tons of pears, 740,000 tons of sugar beets, and 126,000 bales of cotton, not to forget a citrus crop 86 per cent normal.

County Tax Office Busy Posting 403,077 Bills

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—A breathing spell was reached at noon today by the employes of the county tax collectors' office which have mailed out 403,077 bills in the last fortnight. Taxpayers have from October 20 to December 1 to make payments without incurring a penalty, it was stated. Already a quarter of a million dollars has reached the county coffers, according to Collector John Welch.

TWO YOUTHS STEAL CAR, ROB GAS STATION

Force Manager to Lie on Ground, Take Cash From Register and Escape

At the point of blue steel automatic pistols, two young men held up the Standard Oil Co. service station at the southeast corner of Glendale and Wilson avenues, shortly after 9 o'clock last night.

While one compelled E. M. Kyle, manager, to lie flat on his back on the floor, the other rifled the cash register of approximately $70, according to a police report, and in addition took a bag of money left at the station by the manager of one of the company's Hollywood stations.

They drove up in a Maxwell sedan, Mr. Kyle reports, and asked for a quart of oil. He raised the hood and went inside to get the oil. One of them then got out, followed him in, and pushing a gun into his back, said:

Rob and Escape

"Get down, get down quick and lay on your back!"

Kyle complied and remained in that position until some time after the men had made their haul and driven away. They went north on Glendale avenue, he states.

He describes them as about 24 years old, one wearing a dark shirt and one a light shirt, and both dressed in dark clothes. They were about 5 feet 9 inches in height, he thinks.

Trace Stolen Car

Glendale police detectives, who investigated, believe the car these men used was the one stolen last night from F. A. Estock of 1616 Del Valle avenue, Verdugo Woodlands. The car has not yet been recovered. The license number is rported as 728-899, which Mr. Kyle believes is the one on the car of the hold-up men.

Following the report of the looting of this station, Glendale motorcycle officers rode to Montrose, Pasadena, Burbank and Los Angeles, in an effort to locate the fleeing youths, but could pick up no trace of them.

The car stolen from F. A. Estock and used by the hold-up men was located by the Glendale police at 9 o'clock this morning, abandoned outside 528 East Maple street, and the owner notified. Mr. Estock found, on recovering the car, that the rear window was broken. A number of books that had been inside the car were missing.

Judge Denies Car to Rich Long Branch Boy

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—Ray Allen, son of wealthy Long Beach parents, must give up his automobile during school hours, according to a decision today by Judge John L. Fleming. Allen was accused by his teacher of promoting joy rides during school hours and police arrested him for reckless driving. "You can walk," was the judge's comment.

'Fishpole' Burglar Busy Fishing for L.A. Purses

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—A "fishpole" burglar was reported in action today by the police. Mrs. A. Kanary told officers that she was awakened during the night and stricken with terror by the sight of a long fishpole extended toward her purse. She screamed, the burglar dropped his pole and ran.

ATTACK ON CHINESE

MANILA, Oct. 25—Anti-Chinese rioting has broken out in several towns in Tayabas province, advices received here today stated. Several Chinese were reported to have drowned in the Cabanatuan river in escaping a Filipino mob.

Notre Dame Defeats Princeton Squad, 12-0 Showing Master Game

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 25.—Notre Dame's shifty, intelligent team, working with the speed of a thrusting rapier, repeated its triumph of last year over Princeton this afternoon when it gave the Tiger a thorough beating by a score of 12 to 0.

Princeton didn't even make it look close. Not once during the game did the Tiger carry the ball inside of Notre Dame's 30-yard line, while the Irish fairly ran wild, particularly Crowley. The latter ripped off gains ranging from 5 to 35 yards and jumped all around the Princeton ends and tackles. He scored both touchdowns.

About 40,000 people witnessed the performance, the comparative light turn-out being a surprise in view of the importance of the game.

Those who did attend, however, saw a master backfield in action. Not only did Notre Dame carry the ball almost the entire length of the field for both of its touchdowns, but was divorced from the third by a penalty for holding after Crowley had rushed over the goal line. Crowley's fumble on the nine-yard line in the second period probably prevented a further Irish score.

PRINCE GOING HOME

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Looking tired as the result of his strenuous vacation in the United States and Canada, but declaring himself fit and regretful of departure, the Prince of Wales sailed early today aboard the White Star liner Olympic for Southampton and London.

The prince landed from the Cunard liner Berengaria on August 19, spent a great deal of his time in dancing and riding. The last of his holiday was spent in Massachusetts, where he participated in a drag hunt, following which he boarded a special train for New York.

AGRICULTURE SECRETARY IS DEAD

Henry C. Wallace Passes Away In Washington Following Operation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace died at the Naval hospital at 4 o'clock this afternoon, following an operation a few days ago.

The immediate cause of Wallace's death was toxemic poisoning, which developed after a successful operation for the removal of his appendix and gall bladder.

Turn for Worse

The operation was performed by Lieutenant-Commander Joel T. Boone, one of the White House physicians, who pronounced Wallace on the road to recovery until Thursday night, when the secretary took a sudden turn for the worse.

His death was not unexpected. Since yesterday afternoon, when the poison first began to spread widely through his weakened system, he had been unconscious and slowly growing weaker. He lost ground rapidly during the night and this forenoon, and at noon the doctors admitted he was "just barely alive."

Secretary Wallace was born in Rock Island, Ills., May 11, 1866, and attended Iowa State college at Ames, where he studied agriculture. After graduation he became a breeder of thoroughbred stock, particularly cattle.

SEES LABOR VICTORY

SWANSEA, Wales, Oct. 25.—"We are going to knock the opposition into a cocked hat," declared Premier Ramsay Macdonald in a campaign speech here this afternoon. "The Labor party will work for peace so long as it represents democracy. A vote for labor is a vote to change the social order from force to reason, not from force to arms."

DEPOSED MILITARY LEADER FLEES

SHANGHAI, Oct. 25.—A Mukden report tonight declared that Wu Pei Fu, deposed Chihli military leader, had fled from the Shanhai Kuan district on board a troop transport which carried ten thousand of his picked troops. The report said he expected to attempt a landing in Shantung. The complete surrender of the Chihli forces in the Shanhai Kuan sector was expected momentarily, the Mukden report said.

HOMECANNED VEGETABLE CAUSE OF FATALITY

Thirty-five Chickens Also Eat of Product and All of Them Die

Following the death last night from botulism, of Miss Cora Eaton, 60, the third fatality from this form of poisoning to occur in Glendale in the last two years, Health Officer G. Kaemmerling issued a warning today against the use of all forms of home-canned fruits and vegetables.

Miss Eaton, who lived by herself at 1201 East Stanley avenue, was found by the health officer in a precarious condition at her home shortly after noon yesterday.

He ordered her to the General hospital in Los Angeles, where she died at 6:12 o'clock last night.

An investigation conducted by the health department disclosed that a neighbor had presented Miss Eaton with a jar of home canned string beans last Saturday, and that, after taking one taste of the contents of the jar before heating the beans for her meal, she found something to be wrong with them and threw them to her chickens.

Battle For Life

On Monday morning thirty-five of the thirty-six chickens in the pen were found dead. At the same time Miss Eaton became ill, but it was not until some time Tuesday that a physician was summoned to the house. He diagnosed the case as neuritis, according to the health officer's report. Later in the week Miss Eaton was treated for ptomaine poisoning, the true nature of her ailment not being recognized until the arrival of Dr. Kaemmerling. Every effort to save the woman's life by the injection of serum failed to produce results.

Gives Warning

The practice of canning fruits and vegetables at home, particularly by the "cold pack" method was discouraged by Dr. Kaemmerling. In the event canned products are used, it is urged that they be boiled at least for five minutes before serving.

Three other cases similar to that of Miss Eaton, have been reported to the health office in Glendale during the past two years, according to the health officer. In all these cases "cold pack" products have been the cause of the poisoning.

Miss Eaton leaves a cousin in Los Angeles and other relatives in the east.

Broken Down Car Stolen, Returned to Owner Like New

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—An automobile that was stolen two weeks ago, in such bad condition that it would barely run, was returned today to its owner, Henry K. Crawford, resplendent in a new coat of paint, four new cord tires and a renewed engine. At the time it was stolen the tires were badly worn and the engine was barely holding together. Today Crawford noticed a car bearing his license number. A hasty investigation disclosed the fact that the car was his old one.

REPUBLICANS FAR AHEAD IN STATE

Southern California Will Control Election If Vote Is 'Regular'

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 25.—Official registration figures for the general election November 4 made public today by Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan, show the Republicans outnumbered the Democrats three to one in the state but also revealed a heavy registration of persons declining to state their party affiliations. The official tabulations show a total registration of 1,822,357, divided as follows:

Republican, 1,183,672; Democratic, 397,963; declined to state, 195,192; Socialist, 23,899; prohibition, 19,596; miscellaneous, 2,036.

South Controls

Southern California will virtually control the election if the vote in the south is "regular," registration figures indicate.

Los Angeles reported a total registration of 656,073, a gain of more than 100,000 since the primary election.

San Francisco's total registration was 221,260 and Alameda's 199,832.

BLAST BLOWS HOUSE INTO AIR, FIRE FOLLOWS

Albert Rook Home, Corner Kenilworth and South, Is Completely Demolished

By H. THOMPSON RICH
Of The Evening News Staff.

A mysterious explosion that was heard for blocks completely demolished the stucco house of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rook at the southwest corner of Kenilworth avenue and South street, at 7 o'clock last night, dislodging the roof and bulging out the walls into a grotesque heap of wreckage. The owners were absent at the time, otherwise it is believed they might have been killed.

Windows were broken and doors rattled in many homes of the district, and the house of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Wiles at 602 South street, adjoining the wrecked house on the west, received the brunt of the shock, sustaining a staved-in wall and many broken windows.

S. C. Singer, division manager of the Southern California Gas Co., with offices at 124 North Maryland avenue, advances two theories as to the cause of the explosion. One is that the accumulated gas was ignited from a lantern on the ditch outside the premises. The other is that some passer-by dropped a cigaret or cigar butt, a spark from which might have touched off the highly gaseous atmosphere.

Roof Leaps In Air

Mr. and Mrs. Wiles were dining at the time and, as the blast came, the food was swept from the table into their laps. Numerous other ludicrous and semi-tragic incidents are reported. Darrell Cole, young son of Sergeant J. D. Cole of the Glendale police department, was on his way to their home at 628 North Orange street when the crash was heard, and was within three doors of the demolished house. Turning with a jump, he saw the roof leap into the air and the walls bulge out, as a flash of vivid flame pierced the night.

H. D. Gibbons of 606 West Stocker street, one block away, heard the explosion and telephoned the fire department, whose arrival, he states, was re-

PREPARES TO RISK LIFE IN FLIGHT

Argentine Aviator Refuses To Give Up Plan of North Pacific Trip

TOKIO, Oct. 25—"I'm well and my airplane is working well. I must make the attempt regardless of the result."

This was the declaration of Major Zanni, Argentine round-the-world flyer, as he left today for Kobe to personally make arrangements there for the dangerous passage of the North Pacific, which has been accomplished but once in the history of aviation, by the American round-the-world flyers, and which is regarded by maritime men as a foolhardy proposition at this season of the year.

Two ships have been found which are insured for passage fifty degrees north. If they are insurable sixty degrees north, Major Zanni will charter them. If they are charterable they will start north Tuesday to serve as rescue ships on the long Pacific span.

Major Zanni will hop off a week later for Northern Japan and make the Pacific jump as quickly as possible.

WOODMEN TO GATHER AT PASADENA

Glendale Camp to Be Among Others at Rally and Class Adoption

Members of Glendale camp No. 12886, Modern Woodmen of America, will meet in the camp hall next Monday for a short business session, after which they will leave for Pasadena, where a rally and class adoption is scheduled.

Members from other camps also will take part and from indications a large class of candidates enrolled by these various camps is sure to provide a good evening's entertainment. Camps represented are: Pacific, Los Angeles; Lancaster, Glendale, Garvanza, Baldwin Park, Pasadena, South Pasadena, Alhambra, El Monte, San Dimas, Covina, Tujunga, Azusa, LaVerne, Pomona, Claremont, Arcadia, Monrovia and Glendora.

Glendale camp will meet promptly at 7:30 p. m. and finish its business by 8. Members desiring to go who have no car will find room in cars of others. Camp Clerk Henry Molz is anxious to have Glendale camp make a good showing and wants to see the old-timers especially in attendance.

FROM EAGLE ROCK

EAGLE ROCK, Oct. 25.—A portion of the proceeds from the recent Harvest Home festival staged by the Eagle Rock Parent-Teacher association has been used to purchase brass rods for the drapes in the auditorium of the Eagle Rock school, it is announced by Mrs. J. C. Reiter, president.

At the last board meeting of this association, arrangements were made to secure Venetian blinds for the north side of the schoolhouse, where the kindergarten is located, to prevent the glaring light from injuring the children's eyes.

"Green Stockings," the second Community Players' offering of the fall season, was presented last night at the Eagle Rock school auditorium, and will be presented again at 8 o'clock tonight.

Miss Helen S. Pratt, secretary of the California Audubon society, recently had charge of a bird study exhibit at the Teachers' institute of San Bernardino county. The institute was held at Ontario.

Mrs. Elizabeth G. Whitman of Boston, Mass., mother of Percy Whitman of College View, has arrived to spend the winter here.

The San Rafael Hills chapter of the D. A. R. last met with Mrs. Clara B. McKee, 1816 Woodrow avenue. The state regent and the vice-regent were guests of the afternoon.

On Tuesday night the annual girls' banquet was held in the social hall of the Presbyterian church. All the intermediate and senior girls of the church Sunday school and girl reserves were invited. The women of the church gave the dinner.

The Women's club is announcing the first dance of the winter season for tonight, in the clubhouse. Mrs. Harold Ide Cruzan, Mrs. Grace Sherwood and Mrs. Ed Thompson are hostesses in charge of this event, which they aim to make one of the outstanding social affairs of the year. "Snappy" music is promised, along with a wide variety of fun-making favors and delicious refreshments. Everyone is welcome.

BURBANK NEWS

BURBANK, Oct. 25.—Public spirited residents of this city have taken issue with the recent prediction of W. M. Garland, Los Angeles realtor, that Burbank may boast 25,000 population by 1930. It may boast 50,000 by then, declares Manager J. W. Charleville of the local Chamber of Commerce, J. D. Radcliff and L. H. Boydston, all of whom feel the dean of Southern California population prophets has turned ultra-conservative.

Further business development on Fourth street is seen in the construction of a building between Santa Anita and Providencia avenues, which is being erected by Geo. T. Richard and his brother, Thos. G. Richard, the latter of Arlington, the former a well known resident here, who has done considerable building in this city.

The "Fathers' Night" meeting held at the John Muir schoolhouse Thursday night, under the auspices of the P.-T. A., drew a large attendance. Mrs. Margaret Yale gave an address on "The Proposed Amendments to the Constitution" and Miss Ruth Cordes, attendance officer, gave a talk. A social hour followed and refreshments were served in the Boy Scouts' cabin. Music was furnished by the John Muir orchestra.

Elmer Showalter and wife, of Virginia, arrived recently at the home of Mr. Showalter's parents on Wheatland avenue, Orange Cove, having motored through. They plan to remain here and build on the Showalter property. The elder Mr. and Mrs. Showalter came to Roscoe from Kentucky and purchased their present ranch some months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelley are leaving the Deacon home on San Fernando boulevard for Delano, at which place Mr. Shelley will resume his old work with an oil company.

Electrically operated wheel chairs for invalids have been invented.

MUSIC CLUB TO CONDUCT CAMPAIGN

Organization In Drive to Secure New Members; Plan 'The Messiah'

The Glendale Music club will launch a membership drive, a prize of $10 being offered by Miss Myrtle Baldwin to the person securing the most members. Plans for the drive were made at a meeting of the club board yesterday. In the absence of Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, club president, who is convalescing from pneumonia at her home, Miss Baldwin, third director of the Junior Auxiliary, is directing the club affairs.

In planning for the year, Mrs. Louise Cowan Bigelow, vocalist and teacher, a recent arrival from New York, and Mrs. Perry Rogers of the music department of the Glendale High school, were named directors of the junior department of the club.

Plans For Future

Announcement was made that at the next meeting of the club John Smallman will present a mixed quartet. In December the Oratorio department of the club, directed by Mr. Smallman, will give Handel's "Messiah" in the auditorium of the Broadway High school. Music club members will be admitted by membership cards. In January Eve Gauthier, noted soprano, will be heard.

OAK TREE INN IS POPULAR RESORT

Wayside Cafe, No. Verdugo Road, Specializes In Its Chicken Dinners

One of the most popular wayside cafes in the scenic Verdugo district is Old Oak Tree Inn, 2840 North Verdugo road, midway between Glendale and Montrose. The roadside dining and recreation resort specializes in Southern chicken dinners and maintains an all-week service from noon to midnight, daily. It is a picturesque retreat among live oaks nestled in the most charming spot of the Glendale-Montrose drive. There are rustic verandas equipped with perfectly appointed tables, a large cafe with stone fireplace and room and floor for dancing, private dining rooms, and radio service. The Inn is situated 2000 feet above sea level and commands views of the Verdugo Hills and valleys adjacent. It is located on the famous old Crocker rancho, one-half mile below Montrose and furnished and equipped to serve sixty-five guests.

Favorite Resort

Old Oak Tree Inn has been established for almost three years, and is one of the favored resorts for dinner and dancing parties, as well as pleasure travelers who relish good dinners. The management makes a specialty of catering to club, luncheon, card and dancing parties, and any discriminating ensemble patronage. Individual service always is available and maintained at the exemplary standard responsible for the Inn's popularity.

Old California Style Home Ready for Buyer

A residence following the spacious, artistic lines of early Californian architecture, with a long room across the front, overlooking a sunken garden and opening onto cloisters on each side, has been completed at 938 East Mountain street by the Homecrafts corporation, 416-418 East Colorado boulevard.

This distinctive home is offered for sale, it is announced by the builders, at a price and on terms that they feel will move it fast. The house occupies a lot, 58x146 feet, in the Rossmoyne section, and was built for those not desiring too many rooms to care for, the builders state. The approach is through covered grape arbors, surrounding the garden, constructed to carry out to the last touch the careful early Californian planning of a house.

Judge Reeve Operated Upon for Gall Bladder

Sidney N. Reeve of 406 Randolph street, presiding judge of the criminal branch of the superior court, was operated on yesterday at a Los Angeles hospital for the removal of the gall bladder. Dr. Charles F. Nelson was the attending physician and surgeon. Mrs. Reeve stated this morning that Judge Reeve's condition was satisfactory. Judge Reeve has been absent from his court for two months, having been granted a leave because of illness. He expects to return to the bench as soon as his physical condition will permit.

Knights Templar Here For Annual Field Day

Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States.

The parade started promptly at 1:30 o'clock under the charge of Past Commander Glen Moore of Glendale Commandery. In the line were representatives of twenty-four commanderies of the Southland, many drill teams and three crack Templar bands confined. The parade moved east on Colorado street from the formation point as far as Glendale avenue. Thence it turned north to Broadway and back along that thoroughfare to Brand boulevard, north on Brand to California avenue and then counter marched to the Masonic Temple, which is headquarters during the day. Hundreds lined the streets and cheered, as the plumed knights passed in review and the drill teams went through their different formations with the skill of experts.

Earlier in the day, from 11:30 until 1 o'clock, the hundreds of Sir Knights and their ladies and families enjoyed basket lunch at the Harvard field. At the Masonic Temple, a banquet was spread for grand officers, past commanders, elective officers and judges, who were to award championship honors in the drill competition.

Following the parade the uniformed ranks moved to the athletic field where the field day competitions will be held. More than seven, and in all probability a total of twelve, drill teams will compete at the field. Among these will be the recently formed Glendale team, composed of thirty members of the local commandery. Past commanders of three commanderies, Stanley Chapman of Fullerton, C. F. Hutchins of South Pasadena, and A. L. Carroll of Inglewood, will judge the competitions.

Commanderies of Southern California which were represented today, either by drill teams, bands or attendance of members were: Los Angeles, class A and B drill teams and band; Ventura, San Bernardino, San Diego, Riverside, Pasadena, band and class A drill team, Santa Ana, Pomona, Long Beach, class A and B drill teams; Golden West of Los Angeles, class A drill team; Redlands, Alhambra, Covina, Whittier, Glendale, class B drill team; Fullerton, Hollywood, Santa Monica, San Pedro and South Pasadena. Approximately 1100 Knights were present from these commanderies.

The annual field day meet of the Southern California Knights Templar association is held in one of the cities in Southern California, maintaining a commandery, each year. Because of the fine growth of the Glendale commandery and the big things it has accomplished, the honor was bestowed here for the year 1924.

KIDS PREPARE FOR PARADE PAGEANT

Hallo-Kiwanis Festival Next Friday to Award 200 Costume Prizes

Children of Glendale, from kindergarten youngsters to high school students, will take part in the Hallowe'en pageant and festival to be held next Friday night under the auspices of the Glendale Kiwanis club. More than 200 prizes for the best costumes and masquerades symbolizing the Hallowe'en spirit, with special prizes for best floats entered in the parade will be awarded.

Ten divisions will be in line. Children will form their line at Brand boulevard and California street. All are requested to be in line by 7 o'clock so that judging may be completed before the start of the parade. Judging of floats will take place later at Harvard High school athletic field.

Line of March

In order to insure safety for the children, Chief John D. Fraser of the police department will keep Brand boulevard, from California street to Colorado street, clear of traffic. Line of march will be south on Brand to Colorado and thence to the Harvard athletic field.

A monster entertainment, including athletic events, games and other features, will be staged on the field. Refreshments will be served, with Kiwanians acting as hosts. Judges' stand, from which judging of the floats will be made, will be erected on Harvard field. Prizes for the costumes and the floats both will be awarded to the winners from the stand.

Climaxing the evening's entertainment will be the huge 50-foot bonfire and fireworks display.

Children's Divisions

Children participating in the pageant will be arranged in the following divisions, according to their school grades: First division, first and second grade boys and girls; second division, third and fourth grade boys and girls; third division, fifth and sixth grade girls only; fourth division, fifth and sixth grade boys only; fifth division, seventh and eighth grade girls; sixth division, seventh and eighth grade boys; seventh division, Harvard Junior High school girls or ninth grade girls; eighth division, Harvard Junior High school boys or ninth grade boys; ninth division, high school girls; tenth diviison, high school boys.

There will be ten or more prizes awarded in each division. Many of the prizes are now on display at the D. L. Gregg Hardware Co., 107 North Brand boulevard.

Visitors In Glendale May Cast Vote In City

It was announced at Glendale Coolidge headquarters today that all visitors in Glendale of voting age, not wishing or unable to get to their homes within the state on election day, may take advantage of the absent voters' law and register their vote in Glendale. Advantage of this must be taken before next Tuesday. Headquarters will give further information to those interested.

LEGION POST RECEIVES MEMBERS

Local Chapter Initiates 23 New Ones; Advised to Beat Amendment

Members of Glendale Post No. 127, American Legion, were advised last night to work for the defeat of Amendment No. 5, which will be submitted to the voters at the general election, November 4. Post Commander Joseph Wilson, presiding, explained that when the amendment was drafted certain parts were omitted and passage of the amendment would invalidate all legislation passed by the state assembly for the aid of veterans.

The joker was not discovered until two weeks ago by the secretary of state, Commander Wilson said. It was too late then to keep it off the ballot, and the defeat of the measure is advocated. Voting against the amendment will not disrupt past legislation for veterans' aid, he said, but voting for the amendment will tend to prevent veterans getting any further aid.

23 New Members

The meeting, held at 333 North Brand boulevard, was featured by the initiation of twenty-three new members. An effort is being made to secure 400 members before the first of the year.

Judge Archibald, who handles a number of juvenile cases in the courts of Los Angeles county, spoke on the amount of crime among youths of today. He urged members of the post to support the Boy Scout troop sponsored by the post, and said only three boys brought before him in the past six months were Boy Scouts.

The sum of $75 was raised for the troop of Boy Scouts sponsored by the post when chances were sold on a man's suit. Frank Weller, assemblyman from the Sixty-first district, which includes Glendale, and a member of the local post, won the suit, and donated a sum equal to its value to the troop. Eugene Wix had charge of the affair.

Visiting Delegations

Delegations from neighboring posts attended the meeting to witness the new ritual work and the intiation conducted under the direction of First Vice-Commander W. H. Regelin.

The new members initiated were: A. D. Hadley, J. R. Garrett, Thomas Moffat, E. A. Manker, A. W. Zabel, C. M. Pearson, S. M. Bunch, A. Rosenblum, B. L. Wix, T R Charlton, J. Kitt, H. P. Scott, J. B. Parks, R. O. Jones, H. T. Rich, C L. Hoffman, W. T. Mussell, A. J. Psenner, A. D. McKenzie, H R. Hodges, W. H. Patten, J. M. Brandt and Joe Romero.

Raid Victim Is Fined $500 In Police Court

Jack Bassell, arrested October 11 by Glendale police in a liquor raid at 103 West Broadway, and who pleaded guilty before Judge Frank H. Lowe of the Glendale police court on two misdemeanor charges for the possession of intoxicating liquor, was released this morning on payment of $500 fine.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES IN MEET

Sixty Representative Women For Various Churches Discuss Work Done

Glendale Federation of Woman's Missionary societies, including all churches in Glendale, held its annual meeting at the Central Christian church yesterday, sixty women from the various churches being present. The morning session opened at 10 o'clock with the introduction of the speaker, Mrs. Frederickson, by Mrs. H. Park Arnold.

Mrs. Fredrickson was a missionary in Africa, beginning her career there in 1887. She told of early difficulties encountered when she and her husband first were sent there, and how at the present time chiefs of African tribes send for missionaries to help them. Mrs. H. Park Arnold sang "The Master Is Calling For Thee," with Mrs. Wannicott as accompanist. Luncheon was served, women of the Christian church acting as hostesses.

Afternoon Session

Afternoon session opened with a duet by Mrs. Floyd Mercer and Mrs. Jodon. Radiograms from various churches were heard and included reports of work accomplished. The fiftieth anniversary of leper work was observed. "He Cared For Us," written by a leper at Carville, La., was sung. "I Will, Be Thou Clean," was read and a leper's version of "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" was sung by the audience.

Mrs. J. Franklin Kelley of Los Angeles, formerly a missionary in India and China, and now western secretary of missions to lepers, addressed the meeting.

Lepers in All Parts

Mrs. Kelley, now teaching among the Chinese in Los Angeles, said there were lepers in every country in the world, there being 5000 lepers in the United States possessions, including the Philippines and the school at Carville, La., where there are almost 200. Recently, she said, she found a leper in Los Angeles selling candy to children and one in Long Beach selling fruit.

While in Oakland about three years ago she said she discovered two lepers who were nurses and that at the present time the board of lepers was caring for 95 localities. In one lepersorium in Korea 75 lepers were dismissed as cured and within six months 50 more were dismissed, all being cured by the new treatment with Chaumoogra oil, and the United States could make enough of this medicine for the world's use, she concluded.

Mrs. Z. L. Hesse, president of the federation, presided. Other federation officers present were: Mrs. V. Kopp, vice president; Mrs. R. W. Mottern, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Paul Hoffman, corresponding secretary.

Local Women Attend Republican Luncheon

The luncheon of Republican women yesterday at the Alexandria hotel in Los Angeles, under the auspices of the Republican Study club, included several Glendale women. A special table was arranged for the Glendale delegation, which was composed of Mesdames Margaret Gale, C. W. Houston, John Robert White, Jr., W. E. Evans, E. C. Pendroy, E. W. W. Hawward, H. E. Bartlett, L. H. Wilson and Viola Waddell.

Mrs. Josephine Winn presided, opening the program with a telegram from President Coolidge. Mrs. Louise Kelley spoke on "Current Events in Russia"; a telegram was read from Mark Requa, head of the state Republican committee; Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, vice-chairman of the Republican committee, was introduced, also Mrs. O. P. Clark, and Mrs. McGowan, Hugh Miller of San Francisco, Senator Shortridge, Mrs. Rose Bryant, Ralph Arnold and Harriett Work, all of whom spoke briefly. The main address was by Mrs. Harry Kleugle of Washington, D. C., who spoke on the Constitution.

Program Of Feature Dances

MISS MARCELLA WEBB of the Marcella Webb School of Ballet Dancing, 347 North Brand boulevard, who will appear in a Russian carnival dance and a Spanish fan dance, Monday night at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, where she and her pupils will present a program under the auspices of the music department of the club.

A program of Russian and Italian ballet is to be presented Monday night at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse by Miss Marcella Webb, talented Glendale dancer and dancing teacher, and a group of her pupils, appearing under the auspices of the music department of the club. Proceeds are to go to the ways and means committee of the club.

This artistic program is to be one of the entertainment features of the club year, and Mrs. Roberta T. Young, curator of the music department, is anticipating a record crowd to greet Miss Webb and her pupils.

Miss Webb will give two numbers, a Russian carnival dance and a Spanish fan dance. It is noteworthy that more than half the numbers on the program have been composed by Miss Webb herself, including the beautiful "Jewel Ballet," which closes the program.

Tickets for the affair can be secured at the door Monday night.

Sale Or Removal Of City Library Not Included In Plans For Civic Center

The sale of the present Harvard street city library, or its removal to the proposed civic center grounds, is not included in the plans of the committee now engaged in actively boosting the bond issue, which will come before the voters of Glendale on November 4, H. M. Butts, vice chairman of the organization of civic enthusiasts, reported today.

"We want every voter to clearly understand our views on this subject," Mr. Butts said. "The committee is working solely to secure a civic center foundation for Glendale while the space at such a suitable location is yet available. We are also endeavoring to advance our school plans and interests in the most efficient manner in conjunction with the movement.

Would Form Unit

"Some citizens have suggested that the moving of the library might be advisable in the future, because of the ample accommodations we hope to secure, but the library, where it now stands, would be near enough to form a unit of the civic center while yet retaining its present building and and ground.

"However, it is within the province of the library board, alone, to initiate a change at any future time."

GLENDALIANS TO GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Monnette Who Have Resided Here Four Years to Celebrate

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Monnette of 532 Burchett street will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary Monday. They have been residents of Glendale for four years, coming to California from Marion county, Ohio, twelve years ago. Miss Ella Carmeau of Chillicothe, Ohio, was married to Melvin Henry Monnette of Marion, Ohio, October 27, 1874, at Chillicothe, Ohio.

Monday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Monnette will be at home to their neighbors and friends. Members of the family and near relatives living here will partake of a turkey dinner served at the family residence. Mr. and Mrs. Monnette have one child, a son residing in Tennessee. A brother of Mr. Monnette, M. J. Monnette, of Los Angeles, and a sister, Mrs. M. J. Tobias, will be present at the anniversary.

CLUB HONORS GLENDALE WOMAN

Mrs. Van Meter's Picture to Be Hung In New Home of New Orleans Society

Mrs. Catherine C. Van Meter of 1136 East Palmer avenue, prominent in Louisiana state club affairs, has received a request from the New Orleans Women's club, the oldest club in Louisiana, for her picture to be placed in the club's new home, in honor of her office as past president of the organization.

New Orleans Women's club, as the oldest club in New Orleans, boasts the distinction of having sent a representative to New York to assist in founding the General Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Van Meter served the club as president for two consecutive terms and later as vice president for two years. She also was first delegate to two biennial conventions of the General Federation in Chicago and New York. Two years later she was chosen first delegate to the biennial in Hot Sprinks, Ark., as representative of the New Orleans City Federation of clubs, a body of forty affiliated organizations which twice elected Mrs. Van Meter to its highest office.

Mrs. Van Meter's Record

During Mrs. Van Meter's presidency of the Women's club, the industrial department founded a clubhouse for women in industry, to assist worthy young women working for low wages in a state which has no minimum wage.

The work of this department was so successful that its workers, with the consent of the sponsor club, formed an independent organization and named it the Catherine club, and the home for the girls "The Catnerine" in honor of Mrs. Van Meter. The Catherine club now has a membership of over 1000, owns property valued at more than $40,000 and stands god-mother to forty or fifty women from year to year.

Journalistic Career

Other activities of Mrs. Van Meter were leader of the King's Daughters' circle for twelve years, a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and for five years a member of the staff of the Times-Picayune of New Orleans. In her journalistic work she took a prominent part in women's suffrage affairs and other movements pertaining to the advancement of women and civic welfare.

Previous to coming to Glendale Mrs. Van Meter lived in Indiana, going there the day after the Armistice was signed. Mrs. Van Meter has bought a home in Glendale and is in the employ of The Glendale Evening News.

China to Be Subject Of School of Missions

The spirit of the Orient will dominate the session of the school of missions tomorrow night at the First Congregational church, North Central and West Wilson avenues. "China" will be the theme and G. M. Gardner of Claremont, formerly a resident of China, will address the adult class. Supper will be served at 5:45 o'clock. The assembly period will be from 6 to 6:30 o'clock, with dramatization of Congregational missionary work in China by the young people's department. Classes meet from 6:30 to 7:25 o'clock.

LOCAL MAN BUILDING CRUISER

Yacht Design, 50 Feet Long, Will Accommodate Eight Persons In Cabin

A high-powered cabin cruiser, 50 feet long and capable of making 14 knots an hour, is being constructed by Al H. McGee, 524 West Burchett street at the Harbor Boat Building Co., San Pedro, at a cost of $15,000. The boat is expected to be ready for a trial trip to Catalina island about March 7, according to Captain McGee.

The cruiser is a yacht model with accommodation for eight persons. It was designed by D. M. Callis, well known over the coast as a naval architect. Every modern convenience with special attention given the galley and its accessories will be had, Captain McGee stated. It will be called "The Wilberta."

Good Report Expected On 'Y' Building Fund

An optimistic forecast of the local Y. M. C. A. building fund drive is expected from Rex C. Kelley, Y. M. C. A. executive, at a dinner meeting next Thursday night at the Glendale Presbyterian church, when final reports will be given and audited and the organization of a Glendale city Y. M. C. A. will take place, with the election of a board of directors and adoption of a constitution. This meeting will be preliminary to completing plans for the selection of a site for the new building.

Workers for the fund still are engaged working for the remaining amount. O. M. Newby, chairman of the committee seeking $1000 for the Harriet Elliott memorial room, stated he has secured over $200.

A mushroom forty-four and one-half inches in circumference was grown in England last summer.

CLUB WOMEN PLAN BIG MEETING

Prominent Speakers to Talk At Second Session of Year's Activities

The Tuesday Afternoon club will hold its second club meeting of the year next Tuesday, the meeting opening at 12:30 o'clock with luncheon. There will be speakers.

Miss Ida D. Myers, curator of the American Citizenship and Legislative department, will introduce Mrs. Maynard Force Thayer; Miss Eva Daniels, chairman of publicity, will introduce Mrs. Leland Atherton Irish, formerly publicity chairman for the Los Angeles district, and Mrs. Arthur Pomeroy will introduce Mrs. Lucile Stephenson, district chairman of circulation of the Federation News and other club literature.

A business session of the club will begin at 2:30 o'clock with the president, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, in charge.

Later R. D. MacLean of the Mission Play, will be heard in Shakespearean selections, and Enona Hopkins, Glendale harpist, will play.

Star of East Order to Hold Meeting Monday

Glendale group, Order of the Star in the East, will meet at 113 South Orange street Monday night at 7:45 o'clock. The order is an international and non-sectarian society, organized for the purpose of bringing together, without distinction of race, color or creed, those who believe in the near coming of the great spiritual Ttacher. Since the founding of the order about twelve years ago it has spread to many parts of the world, nearby centers being Los Angeles, Hollywood and Pasadena. A center was formed in Glendale last November. The public is invited to attend the meeting.

Daily Greeting To News Readers

WE CHANGE OUR MINDS—
About people when we come to know them better.
About jobs when we see how the other man works.
About policies when our party gets into power.
About children when we have some of our own.
About education when we fail for lack of preparation.
About religion when we get into trouble and have no God.
About business when we have invested in some stock.

A RICH LIFE

There is no pleasure like that which results from agreeable employment, and the man who works with nature must have more than his fair share of such delight. It must seem, when the delicious vegetables and luscious fruits are ready for use, and the flower garden flares into a mass of color, that the time and labor spent in planting, cultivating, irrigating, watching and caring for the plants were well worth while. One who loves plants and flowers and makes floriculture his work must surely get from life as much joy as it is possible for one person to extract in a lifetime on this sphere. And, he has the opportunity to give cheer to so many others at the same time.

George Smith of Glendale is one who is thus wise in the lore of the flowers and who loves them well. Under his patient and loving care myriads of blossoms have come into color and fragrance to gladden the earth and bring peace to weary ones. Years ago, Mr. Smith became gardener at the Glendale Sanitarium on Broadway. At least he was connected with the institution when the editor of The Glendale Evening News first came to Glendale. He was scrupulous in his care of the Sanitarium grounds, and when the old plant was abandoned for the new million dollar Sanitarium, Mr. Smith continued his work in the new location.

As the Sanitarium gardener came around a curve on the grounds with an armful of gorgeous blooms the other day, the thought came to one who saw him that the prospect was worthy of an artist's brush—the oak-shaded driveway, with the sunlight filtering through, in the background the magnificent building, in the foreground the gardener leaning on his cane, while the flowers he carried flaunted their color as if they knew they were the bright spot in the picture. And, the thought came that if all the flowers Mr. Smith had cared for and carried to the sick and others, could be re-created and brought together in one place, they would cover all of Glendale.

PURCHASING TITLES

The world has turned topsyturvy in the last ten years. It is possible that an American girl may sit on the throne of Hungary. For that matter, no one would be very greatly surprised to see an American girl become queen of England, although that is improbable for the near future. However, it is said that the former Empress Zita of Hungary may be forced to support herself and her eight children while Count Szechenyi and his wife, the former Gladys Vanderbilt, ascend the throne. This will depend, though, on whether or not the Vanderbilt purse is willing to pay for the honor.

Money has bought many a throne, and while Americans have not purchased many crowns, they have bargained for lesser titles of nobility. The Vanderbilt fortune did not hesitate to pay its way into the nobility. It should be willing now to go the limit for the title of empress.

BEST KIND OF SOCIALISM

Amadeo Giannini, retiring president of a big financial institution, after twenty years as its head, is very wealthy, but he proposes giving none of his wealth to his sons, just because they are his sons. The opportunity is given his employes to become the owners of the bank through majority control of stock by a distribution of profits to the employes plus the annual investment of percentages in their salaries. The sons of Giannini will have the same opportunity as the other employes of the bank to acquire by their industry and their thrift whatever of this world's goods they can.

This man is courageous, to say the least, and it may be he has hit upon the solution of the problem of the inequalities of life. His plan gives equal opportunity to all and as nearly equal rewards as individual merit and industry justify.

PITY THE PARENT

Pity the poor parent. A New York father, the other day, was threatened with arrest unless he compelled his flapper daughter, who was averse to an education, to attend school. Arguments and entreaties had no effect upon the young woman, so the father took her to the woodshed and applied the rod. Then he was arrested for assault and battery. The flapper felt that she had been vindicated, and held to her course. Whereupon her father was again arrested for failure to keep his child in school.

Something is out of joint somewhere, and the only way out of the dilemma is to let the flappers make the laws. Someone says that children now-a-days know more when they are born than their parents do, anyway. Soon we may have the society for prevention of cruelty to parents.

WOULD ENLARGE MAIL SERVICE

A current magazine urges that the air mail be enlarged to carry passengers. The first object of a line of communication is to get messages across, as for example, the pony express. Then a community of interest is established, and the people want to travel the route. Carrying passengers by the mail planes would be at a loss, at least at first. The only profit would be in the development and the maintenance of the air system.

Many urge the building up of the air mail service for a two-fold purpose. Americans have been conspicuous in aeronautical achievements, but America does not rank first among the nations in air power. In enlarging and improving the air mail service, we should be at the same time building up our air defense.

SERVING HUMANITY

An exchange thinks it is ridiculous to put such intellectual individuals as Leopold and Loeb to making mats when they might be engaged in scientific work and so render service to humanity. Yes, why not release them and let them continue their experiments which have meant so much to the world? But, this paper forgets that these boys are mentally ill, and this being so, how could their scientific work be accurate or of service to humanity? Someone else suggests that they be allowed to go out and crusade against capital punishment. Leopold and Loeb can best serve humanity by making mats at Joliet for the rest of their lives.

When it comes to the dotted line, the pen is mightier than the word.

Work plus health equals happiness.

OUCH!!!

The Fashion Dictator

By DR. FRANK CRANE

There ought to be somebody or other appointed as the fashion dictator. There is entirely too much mixed advice and confusion in regard to fashions.

You read on one page that no self-respecting girl will be seen out in anything but brown, and on the next page you read that black silk stockings are to oust all others in public favor. Now it is impossible for anyone to obey both of these dicta. One would have to refuse to be seen walking with a sister, wife or mother, or, for that matter, anybody's relative, who elects to wear black stockings with a brown coat or skirt.

It seems that a sole arbitress should be appointed to take control of fashions and to tell women how they should dress. She should dictate whether hair should be bobbed, long or shingled, the shape of the head, the position of the waistline, the slimness or plumpness of the figure, color scheme, and so on, so that when the finished product was turned loose she would have the authority behind her of her producer.

As it is, a lady, in the language of the gentleman from Texas, does not know where she is at. In other words, she is compelled to do her own thinking and to adapt her styles to her own personality.

It would be much simpler if she could have some arbitress to do this for her and to tell her exactly what to wear. It is much simpler with men's clothes. A man goes to his tailor and orders two or three suits of clothes and leaves the entire matter of style to the expert. He does not discuss it, for he recognizes that the tailor is the authority upon such matters. On the contrary, a woman has to use her brain and she has got so much on her brain nowadays that she ought to be spared matters of personal appearance.

Horoscope

This is rather a doubtful day, according to astrology, but the friendly influences should be stronger than those that are evil. While Venus is in benefic aspect, Jupiter and Uranus are adverse.

Struggle between women and men in the field of business or the professions is forecast, for there is to be bitter competition.

Thrift so constantly preached by the seers may become a necessity, for certainly the United States is to reflect certain European conditions, or at least to feel something of their effects.

This should be a fairly fortunate wedding day, although Uranus may tempt men to deceive those who love them.

This should be a lucky day for theatres, but critics may be rather severe in their judgments when Uranus is in sinister sway.

It is wise to defer all business projects and unfavorable results for inviting enterprises.

Stress should be put on right thinking at this time when all despondent or destructive thoughts should be put aside. The mind should be guarded against pessimism, which prevents success.

All the aspects appear to presage a revival of business, but a tendency toward big combinations, co-operation that is good for the few and unfortunate for the many.

As election day draws near women will become extremely active in certain campaign work, the seers declare, but they should mistrust any decisions made today.

If the signs are wisely interpreted women will find many obstacles in the way of their political ambitions.

It is noteworthy that the conjunction of Mars and Uranus on November 27 is read as presaging religious troubles and even riots.

Shipping strikes and catastrophies at sea may be expected in December.

Persons whose birth date it is should avoid speculation. Business and money should increase. The year should be a fortunate one.

Children born on this day probably will be brave, kind-hearted and much respected. These subjects of Scorpio are likely to be too generous with their money.

Today's Poem

'TIS AUTUMN IN FAIR GLENDALE

Hark! 'Tis autumn once again in fair Glendale-
And all around from rugged hill to modest vale,
Spreads wide the shimm'ring veil's enchanting mist
Whose purpling hues do all our fancies now enlist.

Tall, slim eucalyptus fringe the graying sky,
Whisp'ring, and rustling, flinging out their fragrant cry.
Soft, lacy pepper trees in graceful rows
Guard well the winding way o'er which October glows.

Sturdy oaks keep watch o'er sunburnt hill and dale,
While Valley trees release their leaves before the gale.
Ripe grains and grasses scatter out their seeds
Assuring both squirrel and bird their winter needs.

Sharp the nights and cold, e'en tho the wind be still;
Then dawn unfurls her lights and sets the world athrill
As sun tints sky and puts to flight the cold,
And warms again the balmy breeze with kisses bold.

Hist! 'Tis autumn once again in fair Glendale!
With a hop and a skip and hearty hail!
Welcome! Welcome! She sends her call, Come one! Come All!
Just feel the enchantment of Glendale's Fall.

Who's Who

At the height of the activties coincident with the occupation of the Ruhr, General De Goutte, French war hero, stated that he went into the zone gladly, but if the government wanted the troops taken out it would have to find someone else to do it. Now the general has been relieved, at his own request, of command of the French armies in the Ruhr and has been succeeded by General Adolphe Guillaumat. With the change in command come rumors of changes in policy regarding the handling of the Ruhr situation.

General De Goutte is quite well known in the United States. The man who lost an arm in the service of his country made an extensive tour of the U. S. a year or so ago.

General Guillaumat has had a distinguished military career. He was in command of the allied armies in the Near East in 1917. In recognition of his capable handling of his command there and other activities in the World war he was named a member of the superior war council in 1919. He was born in 1863.

Making Presidents

By H. Irving King

When the Republican convention met at St. Louis in June of 1896 there was little doubt but that William McKinley of Ohio would be its nominee. He had been talked of as a "possibility" in the convention of 1892 and had received 182 votes. He had an able manager in Mark H. Hanna; was a man of ability, of excellent personal character, had done good service in the Civil war, been governor of his state and, as a member of Congress chairman of the committee of ways and means which had prepared the tarriff measure known as the McKinley bill. He was nominated on the first ballot. One ballot also made Garret A. Hobart—a New Jersey lawyer who had held several legislative offices in his state—the nominee for vice president.

The fight was over the platform. The "free silver" idea had grown with surprising rapidity and had gained many converts in the ranks of both the great parties. Senator Teller of Colorado offered a "free silver" plank in an able speech. It was rejected in favor of a "sound money" plank; whereupon Senator Teller, Senator Cannon of Utah and thirty-two other delegates left the convention. In the Democratic convention at Chicago in July there was the same fight between the advocates of "sound money" and "free silver." It was in that convention that William J. Bryan made his famous "cross of gold" and "crown of thorns" speech which captured the presidential nomination for himself on a "free silver" platform. Bryan was nominated on the fifth ballot. Arthur Sewall of Maine, ship builder and banker was nominated for vice president.

The Populists, merged with the Farmers' alliance and kindred organizations, as The People's party, held a convention in July, endorsed the nomination of Bryan but rejected Sewall, nominating Thomas E. Watson of Georgia instead. The National Silver party held a convention simultaneously with the Populists and endorsed the Democratic ticket. The Sound Money Democrats met in convention as the National Democratic party and nominated John M. Palmer of Illinois, who had been Union General in the Civil war and Simon B. Buckner of Kentucky, who had been a Confederate general in that same struggle, for president and vice president. Free silver disturbed even the Prohibition convention. Joshua Levering of Maryland being nominated for president and Hale Johnson of Illinois for vice president on a "sound money" platform, many delegates withdrew and nominated the Rev. Charles A. Bentley of Nebraska and James A. Southgate of North Carolina on a silver platform. Charles E. Matchett of New York and Mathew Maguire of New Jersey were the nominees of the Socialist-Labor party.

The popular vote was as follows: McKinley, 7,111,607; Bryan 6,509,062; Palmer 134,645; Levering 131,312; Bentley 13,968; Matchett 36,737. Electoral votes McKinley 371; Bryan 176. For vice president Hobart received the same electoral vote as McKinley; Sewall had 149 and Watson 27.

REALTORS IN NATIONAL MEETING

Officers of California State Board Leave for Parley In Columbus, Ohio

President Everett A. White of the California Real Estate association, accompanied by State Vice-president Robert A. Swink of Pasadena and Fred E. Reed, chairman of the membership committee of thirteen leave today for Columbus, Ohio, to attend the meeting of the board of directors of the National Association of Real Estate boards. The California committee will meet a committee of three from New York state and three from the national association consisting of former National President L. F. Eppich of Denver; Frank H. Purington of Boston, and W. H. Gardner of Winnipeg. The question to come before the committee is that of one board to a city. At the Pasadena convention the California Real Estate association without a dissenting vote went on record in favor of more than one board in cities of 500,000 population or over, under certain conditions. The questions at issue locally were the right of annexed cities such as San Pedro, Lankershim, and Van Nuys to retain their state and national charters, and that of the Southwest Realty board of Los Angeles to remain a member of the state association, and which board the Pasadena convention has recommended to the national association for a national charter.

California Largest

In New York City the Real Estate board of New York City has the only charter of a board of realtors. The real estate boards in Brooklyn, Staten Island and Jamaica, all cities within the corporate limits of Greater New York, are to have the rights to use the word realtor as district member boards, on the California-New York plan, if the resolutions of the California and New York state associations are approved by the board of directors of the national association.

The California Real Estate association is the largest state association in the United States, and New York is among the first three. There are 507 boards in the National Association of Real Estate boards, and of these more than seventy-five are from California, and over one-sixth of the active members of the national association reside in California.

President Approves

Charles G. Edwards, president-elect of the national association, who will take office in January, is the retiring president of the Real Estate board of New York City. In a telegram to the California Real Estate association, Mr. Edwards said: "I hartily approve the action taken by the California Real Estate association to permit change of national constitution allowing more than one board in a city under certain conditions. I believe as you do that it solves a problem long confronting us and means greater influence of national and state bodies."

As alternates to Columbus, Peter Hanson, president of the Glendale Realty board and Chris R. Jones, former president of the Sacramento Real Estate board, have been named.

Advance Orders for Dry Goods Show Increase

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 25.—Despite warm weather in this section, advance orders for dry goods are increasing and the volume of business due to delay in placing fall orders, together with recent curtailment of mills is making prompt delivery difficult in some lines.

PLANS APPROVED FOR CLUBHOUSE

Iroquois Swimming, Dancing Club to Be Built on Arden Avenue

Plans for the proposed Iroquois Swimming and Dancing club have been approved by the Glendale City Council and Planning Commission. Fred E. Graf of Hollywood and B. F. Brennan of Glendale are the promoters. The building will be constructed on Arden avenue, between Columbus and Central avenue. Purchase of the property, 150x235, was made through O. M. Newby, realtor.

The proposed building will be approximately 100x162, with swimming pool 50x110, and the ballroom 50x90. The lobby will be fitted with chairs and lounges. Water in the plunge will be heated, and the latest filtering equipment will be installed.

The building, a picture of which appears in today's issue of The Glendale Evening News, is of Spanish design, from plans drawn by J. H. Randall, Glendale architect. Construction will be started as soon as possible.

Membership Limited

A large number of people have obtained membership in the Iroquois Swimming and Dancing club, Mr. Graf stated today. Membership is limited, and the fee is $50, with only a few memberships at this price. Others will be $100. Dues will be $3 a month, which entitles the member to the use of the plunge, locker service, clubroom and ballroom. Memberships are non-assessable and transferable.

This will be the only club of its kind in Glendale, and there are few much larger cities than Glendale that can boast of a swimming pool, clubroom and ballroom under the same roof.

Those desiring to obtain membership may do so by calling at the administration office, at 423 Glendale Security Bank building or phone Glendale 4681.

BIG BUILDING BOOM DRAWS ON LUMBER

Millions of Feet Unloaded In L. A. Harbor Goes Into New Projects

By MARIAN MARSHALL
For Southland News Service.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—Daily reports from San Pedro, the harbor of Los Angeles, tell of millions of feet of lumber being unloaded. Yards are moving this supply and the casual observer may wonder where it is going—for construction activity in the metropolitan area does not entail the use of much wood.

In the outlying districts of Los Angeles home building is on the jump and demands a major portion of the Oregon and Washington pine and California redwood, but for the balance—where does it go?

There is an answer which is comparable to the general results of a load from a shotgun. In big dabs, as it were, the recent importations have been scattered over Southern California.

Where Lumber Goes

The Culver City speedway, for instance, is using a million feet of lumber. Construction at the harbor of wharves and warehouses is using quantities. Ranchers who have reaped the rewards of high prices this year are doing a record amount of construction work.

And it is surprising the building which is going on in out-of-the-way places. Palm Springs is an example. Uwards of $1,000,000 is being spent there in development. Work is being rushed on the new Hacienda hotel, said to be financed by the Hellman interests of Los Angeles.

Extensive additions have beeu made to the Bunker hotel, and all accommodations are reported reserved. Winter homes for Roland Bishop, William Mead and other Los Angeles capitalists are in the course of completion.

Riverside Booming

Cities like Riverside again are enjoying a substantial building boom with over $125,000 in permits there so far this month. Santa Ana has numerous industrial projects under way. Mountain camps, including the Mount Lowe resort, have construction programs mounting into the thousands of dollars, little of which is registered in the Southern California building totals.

But the business is here. The lumbermen know it. And the craftsmen who look for work are finding it. Railroads are spending millions in the Southwest on reconstruction.

Yes, business is good!

HERE'S CHANCE TO LIVE IN ENGLAND

Hayward & McCartney Have Twenty Homes for Rent In Surrey District

Perhaps some Glendalian would like to cash in his or her profits on local real estate and retire to England on a country place. If so, E. P. Hayward of Hayward & McCartney, realtors, 142 South Brand boulevard, can put that party in touch with his foreign agents, who have written him the following letter:

"You of course are well aware that Americans are very keen on taking residences in this country, for either a short or long stay, or permanently, and Surrey is the county which is generally preferred. We have at least twenty properties at the present time that we can offer, ranging from 4000 to 50,000 pounds freehold. Most of these properties consist of gentleman's house, necessary lodges, garages and park land, and are all easily accessible to London."

Mr. Hayward feels certain there will be a rush to take up these properties, with the present exchange $4.51 to the English pound!

Quality and Dependability

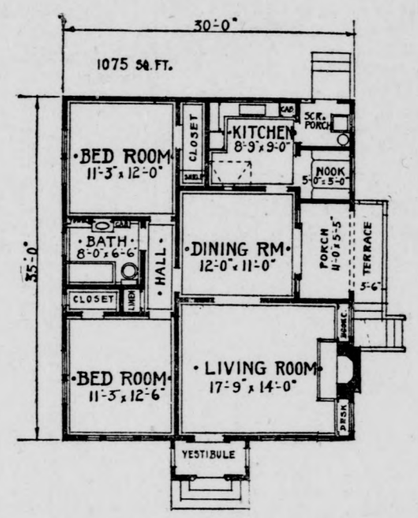
The plan shown below is one of many offered by the Bentley Lumber Co. to those intending to build. The company maintains a department to handle plans and make suggestions to prospective home builders. The department announces it welcomes questions regarding home building.

This little model home specially created for your consideration, reflects details and competent execution not usually found in home plans as small as this. Not only has every department of the exterior been carefully considered, but the rooms themselves are just as compact and convenient as it is possible to arrange them.

The wall construction calls for stucco over brick, tile, composition plaster board, metal or wood lath —while the roof is shown in tile, composition or slate shingles would be practical.

There are many features incorporated in the interior arrangement which will make strong appeals. The specially detailed fireplace with bookcases and writing desk with cabinets occupying one entire side, the spacious closets connecting bed rooms, the well arranged bath and modern kitchen showing every conceivable convenience — breakfast nook, ironing board, cooler closet, cabinets, hood over range, and on the back porch is located ice box, heater and stationary tubs.

It's a little dream home and you can't help but like it.



• FLOOR • PLAN • NO. 2016

My Dear Lula—This is absolutely the first minute I have had to myself to write you since Dick and I moved into our adorable new home.

I think the last rug is in place and we can really sit down and enjoy our new surroundings. I am sending you a picture of the front view, as also the floor plan, which is just above. We put the davenport in front of the fire place and I am all curled up in one corner of it now, almost like a cat, and I feel so contented I could almost purr.

I thought I would devote this letter to you in describing the whole house. But I've got a better plan in mind, for, since you told me that you folks were thinking of building, you would be interested in knowing just what to us appears the most important things to consider when building a new home.

Dick and I have simmered it down to four things. Here they are—

First, quality. The careful buyer chooses as a source of supply, a firm whose reputation for selling high quality lumber is well established.

Second, service. Delays in delivery cost you a lot of money. A reliable firm will deliver your order without delay, and their drivers are courteous.

Third, dependability. This Lula, is one of the most important factors. How many times have you dealt with a firm which failed to give satisfaction? Nine times out of ten you "took your medicine," cussed a little maybe, paid the bill and said, "I'm through with that outfit." So be sure you deal with a dependable firm. We bought our lumber from the Bentley Lumber Co., situated at 460 West Los Feliz road. To them a customer is KING, and their long list of customers is evidence enough of Bentley dependability.

Yes, price is important, of course, but only to the degree consistent with quality, service, and dependability. If you get time this week mail me that pattern for that new Hollywood dress you were describing to me.

Lovingly your friend,
ETHEL

CONSTIPATION OVERCOME

The use of FOLEY CATHARTIC TABLETS will bring speedy relief from constipation if taken promptly. They are purely vegetable and act on the liver. Mr. John D. McComb, Lucas Co. Home, Toledo, Ohi , writes· "Have used Foley CATHARTIC TABLETS in severe cases of constipation to which I am subject and found them beneficial." FOLEY CATHARTIC TABLETS are easy to take, leave no unpleasant after effects. Try them.

PRE-ELECTION STOCK RISE IS HINTED

Market Reflects Prosperity As Indicated In Speech Of President Coolidge

By MARKET OBSERVER
For Southland News Service.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—A pre-election rise in stocks is expected the first of the week as an aftermath of the Coolidge speech. And from a careful check-up on political indications correspondents for E. F. Hutton & Co. here say the prospects not only favor a Coolidge victory, but there is an excellent chance for Republican control in the Senate.

Republicans will take the seats of Brandegee of Connecticut and Colt of Rhode Island, according to present indications. Gillette has a chance to defeat Walsh in Massachusetts, while in Montana Senator Walsh is said to have a real fight on his hands with the Republican nominee, Lindemann.

Representative Thomas Schall, blind, is likely to succeed Senator Magnus Johnson, according to the financial advisers, who have no word of praise for the latter. Republican gains in the house also are hoped for, which would put an end to the threats of La Follette, as the traders view his current strength in the Senate.

News in New York

The erection of a high board fence around the rig of the Superior Oil Co., seventeen miles south of Los Angeles, was the subject of special dispatches broadcasted from New York yesterday. Conclusions are reached that a new oil field has been discovered.

There is no reason, so far as the writer can see, in building a high board fence except for publicity—although some neighbors have done so and obtained the publicity as a matter of course. The Superior Oil Co. may have a well. If so, it would be digging sumps, for what good is a high board fence in holding the product of a gusher?

REALTY BODY ANNOUNCES PROGRAM

President White of California Association Lists Six Educational Items

President Everett A. White of the California Real Estate association has announced the following major items to be in his program:

1—Education of the realtor.

2—Legislative and administrative program in co-operation with the state real estate department.

3—Development and multiple listing of farm lands.

4—Development of industries.

5—Investigation of the taxation system which causes real estate and improvements to be taxed for 80 to 85 per cent of all the taxes levied in California.

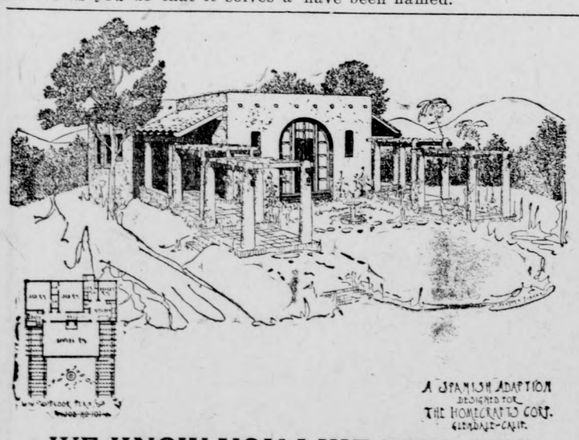
6—Increase of the state association membership by 1000 new members. The association has now over 3300 members.

President White plans to visit many of the boards and has called upon the district vice presidents to arrange for district conferences so that he may address the boards in his district at a large regional meeting.

Bay State to Decide on Two-Cent Gasoline Tax

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—Massachusetts voters will register their opinions at the coming elections on a proposal to levy a gasoline tax of 2 cents a gallon, as is now done in some other states. The proceeds would be divided between the state department of public works and the municipalities raising the funds.

London is taking to soda fountains, and, although there were only two or three in that city six years ago, they are to be found now in department stores, tea rooms, dairies and other places.



WE KNOW YOU LIKE THIS ONE

Just completed, ready to hand to some wise buyer. Located on a sightly lot 58x146, 938 E. Mountain, in the exclusive Rossmoyne section.

A residence built for those who would be satisfied with a home patterned after early California Architecture, with a long room across the front of the house, overlooking a sunken garden in front, and opening onto tile covered cloisters on each side. A home appealing to those not wanting an overabundance of rooms to care for.

To many people it is not the quantity of rooms that count, but the quality, meaning size, finished appearance and view.

So here we have two bed rooms, each with a sweeping view, a breakfast room with magnificent view on two sides, and a kitchen with a charming view of the trees. The kitchen and bath room are completely tiled in subdued colors, and have every built-in feature of merit.

Plumbing fixtures and plumbing will bear close inspection, being of the best obtainable in materials and workmanship.

The approach to the house from the street is through covered grape arbors, surrounding the garden, and serves to carry out the careful planning of this particular building enterprise.

$12,500 buys this gem NOW. Suitable terms.

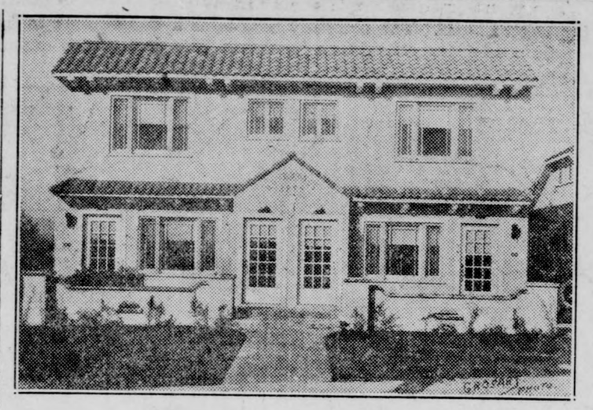
Fifteen Thousand Dollar Robertson Apartment Building, Designed and Built by the Owner, D. A. Robertson. Modern in Every Detail, Splendidly Built with the Finest Materials



THE announcement of the opening of the Robertson Apartments at 115-117 North Verdugo road signals the completion of another handsome and substantial building and a creditable addition to this city's amazing growth.

The Robertson Apartments were designed and built by D. A. Robertson, the owner and proprietor. Of four units, this commodious and beautiful structure will add greatly to the section of North Verdugo road and the district of the Glendale Union High school. The outside, which is blended with three different colors of blended plaster and magnesite, was first covered with portland cement, then stucco, and finally with the plaster and magnesite. This combination of materials gives the building a really artistic appearance without the use of a brush or paint.

the simple but accurate harmony of colors was due to some-the simply but accurate harmony of colors was due to someone skilled with the brush. The roof is of vari-colored tile, while the front of the building is very neatly beautified by ornamentals and a half porch of vari-colored tile. The dining room and living room are combined. Hardwood floors throughout. There are in-a-door beds of the best, with lots of space. The windows are large and numerous, assuring plenty of light and sunshine. There is also a fine big bedroom with clothes closets galore. There is no apartment in the city with more kitchen conveniences. Drawers, cupboards, cooler and everything necessary for a modern kitchen and to fit the requirements of the housewife. Of course, such fine apartments have a breakfast nook in the kitchen, while the floor is covered with very choice linoleum. Acorn ranges are being installed in the kitchens at once. The bath room is exceedingly pleasant, with tile floor, California special tub, shower and continuous hot and cold water, running from an instantaneous heater.

Throughout the building is well designed, well built and finely finished. It is a eulogy of the skill, craftsmanship and stability of its builder and owner. Such buildings as the Robertson apartments go to make a great city. The cost of this fine structure was fifteen thousand dollars.

ROBERTSON IS AN EXPERIENCED BUILDER

"I have been a builder and contractor for twenty years," said Mr. Robertson, the owner and builder of the Robertson apartments, "and really I do not think I would ever bring myself to constructing or designing anything but stable and bona fide buildings. I hold the building craft too highly, in the first place, and, secondly, I cannot see any advantage that comes from the poorer kind of structures. Better and still better buildings has always been my guiding rule and I feel sure that these apartments that I have just finished argue well for my claims."

With the decision of Mr. Robertson to settle in Glendale some two years ago, this city succeeded in bringing to its fold another civic builder and booster. Mr. Robertson came from Wyoming, although, as he says, he has been in every state west of the Mississippi.

Weber's Meat Market Attracts Much Attention

"I think the world of this progressive city," said J. A. Weber of the meat market in the Blatt building at 220 North Verdugo road, "and I have found the location in Glendale that I have wanted since I came to this growing metropolis some three years ago. Naturally I am a property holder here, and you may be assured that I am here to stay. Business is fine and I look for the same success in the future that I have had since the moment of my beginning here."

Mr. Weber runs a first-class meat market in every last detail. He is skilled in meat buying through years of experience in the business. He was formerly head meat cutter at the Little Premium market on Glendale avenue, and was also the manager of a market on Wilson and Glendale avenue for about eight months.

"I expect to see all my old friends and a great number of new ones patronizing my market as the weeks roll by," said Mr. Weber.

Sanitorium Plumbing Was Done by P. E. Swanson

It is of interest to know that the huge plumbing work on the new Glendale Sanitarium was done by P. E. Swanson of 304 North Verdugo road, a plumber of reputation in the trade. Skilled in hydrotherapy and hospital plumbing work, it fell to the skill of Mr. Swanson to do all the work, also, on the Los Angeles General Hospital.

"I have been in Glendale twenty years," said Mr. Swanson, "and have watched and helped it to grow. I remember it when it was very much different to what it is today. We established ourselves in the plumbing business here in the year 1903. Yes, I conducted and supervised all the hydrotherapy fitting and plumbing work in the Sanitarium. It took almost twelve months to accomplish, but it was a fine job in the end."

Apartment Plumbing by Mayo Plumbing Co.

The plumbing on the Robertson Apartments was installed by the well-known Mayo Plumbing Co., a house of no mean standing in Southern California. D. A. Robertson, the owner and proprietor of these new apartments, spoke very highly of the service and workmanship that he had received at the hands of Mr. Mayo, the senior partner of this plumbing firm.

"I guess I ought to know the plumbing business by now," said E. C. Mayo, "for I have been in the game for over twenty-five years. And after all, years count, don't they, in any trade or line of business? It is the practical skill that tells the story in the long run. It isn't boasting when I say that the Mayo Plumbing Co. knows the business. We know our work, and we do it to the satisfaction of our patrons."

The Mayo Plumbing Co. is situated at 911 North Columbus.

In Havana, Cuba, some houses are equipped with current for domestic lighting and other purposes at 110 voltage and others with 220 voltage, so that movers often find their electric irons and toasters that were useful in the old home useless in the new.

S. BLATT MARKET IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS

The completion and opening of the Blatt Market building at the corner of Verdugo and Stanley avenue heralds another milestone in the development of the North Verdugo and Glendale High school section.

This substantial market place that was built at a cost of $15,000 and is a property valued at $30,000, was built by its owner, S. Blatt. The contractor and designer was S. J. Eubant, a builder of years of experience in every part of the country. The building is occupied by Webber Meat market, Blatt's Grocery and Vegetable market and in the corner store by Borchard's Drug store. The construction is so arranged as to permit the building of extra stories at the desire of the owner. The entire building covers an area of 60 by 55 feet, with a concrete foundation and cement floors throughout. The place is well lighted and modern in every respect.

The market is very convenient for residents in the Verdugo section and to the new Robinson apartments that are situated within a block and a half from this market.

A. Blatt, Grocer, Educated And Reared In Glendale

"I came to Glendale when I was 9 years of age," said A. Blatt, of Blatt's market at 220 North Verdugo road," so you see I was really reared and educated in Glendale. Naturally, I have witnessed the marvelous growth of the city, besides the rather remarkable development in this market place of our own. Before we built our $15,000 modern market building we had a frame structure. You can see for youself that this new market is a great and wonderful improvement over the old one. And such is the progress that I have seen all around in Glendale from my boyhood to the present time."

Mr. Blatt started in the grocery business when he was 18 years old, and now, at the age of 21, he is sole proprietor of the grocery and vegetable market and is ably assisted by his wife, Mina Blatt, to whom he has been married but four months. The market is a model of cleanliness and efficiency, being well stocked with the best on the wholesale market.

Borchard, Pharmacist With Years of Practice

The Borchard Drug Store at the corner of Verdugo road and Stanley avenue, which opened its doors last Tuesday morning for service and business, reports a very successful business week. This drug store is an example of the modern drug store technique. Its fixtures are elegant and the soda fountain is one of the finest in Glendale.

Mr. Borchard, who, after watching the stupendous growth of Glendale, decided to locate here as a property owner, said:

"I have been a registered pharmacist in the state of California for ten years, and, now that you ask me, I suppose I am justified in saying that I feel competent to handle prescriptions and compounding. My business in Los Angeles, where I was formerly located, was a genuine success, but tthe attractions of Glendale and its inevitable fine future influenced me to come here, and I look for a fine and prosperous business career."

Market Decoration by The Link Brothers

The painting and decorating on the Blatt Market and its adjoining bungalows was done by the Link Bros., painters and decorators, of Burbank. These brothers are thoroughly proficient at their business and have done very well in business.

American interests have a prominent part in a company organized to take over all telephones in Spain, a feature of which is that government representatives will sit on the board of directors with special authority regarding rates and other matters of public interest.

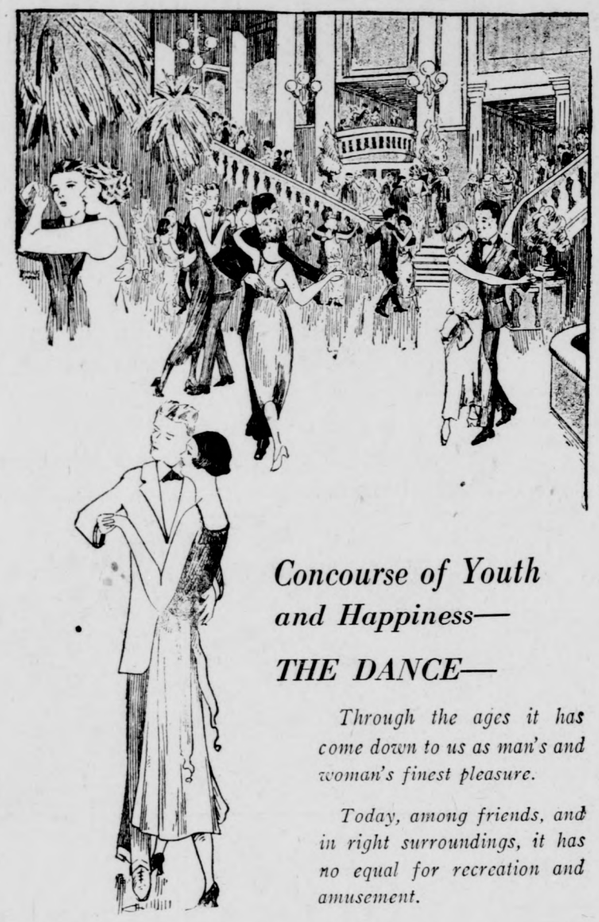
ANNOUNCING

Iroquois Swimming and Dancing CLUB



Concourse of Youth and Happiness—

THE DANCE—

Through the ages it has come down to us as man's and woman's finest pleasure.

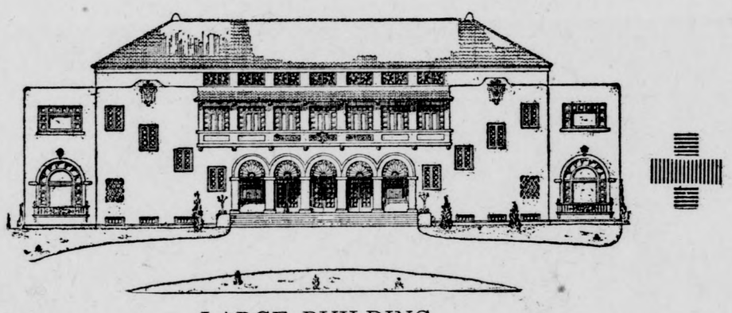
Today, among friends, and in right surroundings, it has no equal for recreation and amusement.

...A Few Real Facts...

We are offering more real happiness per dollar than has ever been offered the public anywhere in the United States. We are told every day that Glendale has too many Clubs now. But are there any in the United States that are offering their Members any such facilities for pleasure, happiness and goodfellowship as are being offered by the Iroquois Swimming and Dancing Club?

We say there are none, and particularly none that are selling Memberships within Five Hundred Dollars of this price that come anywhere near competing with what we are offering our Members for the small sum of $50.00 with Dues of only $3.00 a month, and absolutely no other financial responsibility or assessments.

Remember that this Membership fee is limited and will not remain at this price. It soon will be $100.00, and we predict that in less than a year you will gladly pay $200.00 for a Membership.



LARGE BUILDING
—Building will occupy approximately 100 ft. x 162 ft.
Subject to change.

By Way of Introduction—

IDEALLY situated at the intersection of Arden avenue and Central boulevard, near car lines and Glendale's most prominent boulevard which makes it easily accessible to both downtown and residence districts, will be Glendale's most interesting social club.

The Iroquois Swimming and Dancing club will be in a unique class by itself. It will occupy a building 100 feet by 162 feet. It will house a large Roman soft water swimming plunge. It will have the largest and most artistic ballroom in the city. It will be the ony club in the entire section devoted to dancing and swimming exclusively. With a combination of various essential elements, among which are included location, environment, climate, homelike atmosphere and careful attention to the comforts and desires of its members and their guests, you will find no other club just like it.

It has become a perplexing, not to say a serious question for one to find a place where one can go and spend a few hours each week, under favorable conditions, and enjoy the companionship of friends and indulge in those fascinating and healthful sports such as Swimming and Dancing. To overcome these many obstacles and to provide the members and their friends with an ideal, well located recreation ground was the prime motive which prompted the organization of this Club.

To those who love the glories of aquatic sports and the lure of the dreamy music of the dance, together with the many added features which help one to forget the cares of daily life this Club will have an instant appeal. Health in abundance and vigor unlimited are quickly gained by the tired city dwellers who cast aside all cares and enter whole-heartedly into the spirit of America's two most popular exercises.

Endorsed by The Board of Education in all large cities.

Architecturally pleasing and with every facility for your pleasure and comfort, the Iroquois Swimming and Dancing Club will be a pleasant retreat in any season of the year. Outside the congested district, within a few minutes' ride of your office or home, the Club will be located at Arden Avenue and Central Boulevard. Here you may swim, unhampered by the crowds that flock to the public bathing places, without the many dangers and discomforts, such as treacherous rip-tides and undertows, sunburn, and the long tiresome ride necessary for one to undergo in order to enjoy the pleasures and privileges of ocean swimming and bathing are now forever discarded. Your own club where only members will greet you. For with this wonderful plunge in the heart of the city, you will be afforded the privilege of swimming in clear, pure, fresh water, constantly changing. Not only is the water clear and pure as can be made by the great modern filtering plant with which this plunge will be equipped, but the water is also heated to a comfortable temperature so that you need not picture yourself as shivering from the cold. If you feel tired and run down at the end of a day at the office, or if your nerves are taut and easily jarred after an unusually trying shopping expedition, there is nothing like the refreshing tonic of an invigorating dip in the club's wonderful plunge. Then after the rub down, a few dances in the beautiful ballroom, under the charm of delightful music furnished by one of the best orchestras in the west. It is something that Father, Mother, Daughter, and Son can enjoy each and every day in the year at a minimum of cost.

It is the desire of the organizers to make this club the most popular on the Pacific coast. We firmly believe that the Iroquois Swimming and Dancing Club meets a long felt want and pledge our best efforts in bringing it to a successful realization at the earliest possible moment. Further information can be had from the Club's headquarters, Room 423 Glendale Security Building, Glendale, California.

A Unique Combination—Swimming and Dancing Under One Roof

Well Equipped
—Large Roman Plunge, lockers for ladies and gentlemen, office, reading and writing room, large lounge room, ball room.

Good Atmosphere
—Homelike atmosphere, refinement, much sought after, but seldom obtained, will be the motto of the Iroquois Club.

"Swim for pleasure with health for good measure"

JOIN TODAY!

Invest your money in pursuit of pleasure and recreation as well as for profit. This Club offers you and your friends such an opportunity.

The Wrath To Come

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM, Copyright 1924

CHAPTER VI

"Come and celebrate with us," Grant invited, drawing up a chair for her. "Let me present my friend, Mr. Arthur Lymane—the Princess von Diss."

The uproarious little dinner party at the Villa Miranda drew to a close. Lord Yeovil rose to his feet and laid his hand on Grant's shoulder.

"My young friend," he said, "let us leave this scene of debauchey for a few minutes. You and I will take our coffee together in my den. Thank heavens, none of my colleagues or any members of our new Yellow Press were present here tonight. You were the only silent person, Arthur," he added, pausing on his way to the door. "You look as though you had seen a vision.

The young man, whose silence had indeed been noticeable, looked up.

"I have," he admitted.

"Arthur has fallen in love with a beautiful stranger," Susan called out. "Something must be done about it. Now that we've sent Bobby to Coventry, we can't really spare Arthur. Dad, isn't it one of the duties of a Prime Minister's private secretary to flirt with his daughter when she feels so disposed?"

"Certainly," Lord Yeovil agreed.

"It is also," Grant reminded her, with a slight smile, "part of the duties of a Prime Minister's daughter to see that his secretary doesn't fall under the influence of fascinating but mysterious strangers."

"That settles your hash, young man," Susan declared, across the table. "You stick to me tonight."

"I think I'll resign," Arthur announced. "These conferences are a great strain on my nervous system as it is."

"Wouldn't you be scared if dad took you at your word!" Susan observed, reaching over the table for cigarettes. "You'd never get another job."

"You're all very rude to me," Arthur complained, with a show of dignity. "I am considered in political circles to be a young man of much promise. The Daily Sun said so last week."

There was a chorus of derision, in the midst of which Grant and his host made their way to a small sitting room at the back of the house. Coffee and liqueurs were upon the sideboard, and upon the table was a copy of the Field and two packs of cards.

"Now, my young friend," Lord Yeovil invited, "help yourself to anything you fancy, and there upon the table you will find a highly interesting bridge problem—by way of bluff. Only, whatever we may have to say to one another, let us get it over quickly. The great thing is not to keep Susan waiting. She doesn't understand the interference of international history with her amusements! First of all, have you anything fresh to report?"

"Nothing very definite, sir," Grant acknowledged. "But, in a sense, my cruise to Archangel was a success."

"You mean that you were right in your suspicions?"

"I obtained a good deal of evidence in support of it, evidence which is now in the hands of the British Admiralty. I was at Archangel for a fortnight and I had letters of introduction to two of the Russian admirals. I spent a lot of time on their ships. They were almost as hospitable as the sailors of the old regime."

"Tried to drink you under the table and that sort of thing, I suppose."

Grant smiled.

"I survived the ordeal, but I am afraid that my liver is temporarily deranged," he admitted. "I obtained a lot of quite useful information. Personally I am absolutely convinced now that the Russian fleet has never been trained or adjusted to form a separate unit. It is intended to act in conjunction with the German fleet in some unknown enterprise. A number of the engineers and gunners are Germans and there is a distinct atmosphere of German discipline about the whole outfit. In addition, as I dare say you've heard, they're all armed with German guns. Of course, even a non-expert can easily understand," he went on, after a brief pause, during which he accepted and lit a cigar which his host had silently passed him, "that two nations like Germany and Russia might easily keep within the tonnage allowed them by the Washington Conference, and yet, if each concentrated upon a particular sort of armament, they would, when brought together, be a more formidable fighting unit than the united forces of any two countries who had each spread out their tonnage to make an individual unit."

"You think that is the basis of this understanding between Germany and Russia?" Lord Yeovil asked.

"I am convinced of it," Grant replied. Internal evidence was more difficult to get than external, but I have obtained a certain amount of proof that, contrary to the provisions of the Pact, there exists a secret naval understanding between Germany and Russia. Fortunately for us and for every one it is Great Britain's turn this year to police the seas, so I have made an exhaustive report to your Admiralty. I'm pretty certain that there'll be British warships in the Baltic before many weeks are past."

"You didn't come back in the yacht?"

Grant shook his head.

"I came back overland, sir. I spent four days in Berlin—my second visit as a traveller from the Bethlehem Steel Company."

"Pick up anything?"

"Not much," was the grim acknowledgment. "They're pretty close-lipped in Berlin just now, and I had to be careful. I came away, however, with the absolute conviction that there is something in the air. There is what we used to call 'cyclonic disturbance' about, and the trail led here. You probably know more about it than I do."

MURPHY'S COMEDIANS

"Girl From Home" shows tonight for the last time at the tent theatre of Murphy Comedians No. 2, announces J. W. Davis, manager. Starting Sunday night, "The Lonesome Trail," a western comedy-drama in three strong acts, will run one week, he states. The tent is located on San Fernando boulevard at Cedar street, Burbank, close to the Glendale city limits.

"This tent is heated and we have arranged adequate parking space to accommodate the cars of all our hundreds of patrons," says Mr. Davis. "We want the people of Glendale and vicinity to know that we have overlooked nothing for their comfort."

Vin Moore, a personal selection of Horace Murphy, whose No. 1 company is still playing in San Diego, plays the leading comedy role in "Girl From Home," and has another leading comedy role in "The Lonesome Trail." Barbara Gurney, a Belasco find, plays the ingenue lead.

After the return of metal money in Austria, slot machines will reappear, and those in the Vienna stations that have been out of order since the war are to be put in commission again.

New York has a school for explorers.

THE GATEWAY

"Babbitt," the Warner Brothers picture which opens at the Gateway theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, proves to be a faithful mirror of Sinclair Lewis' towering novel.

The author himself chose this production company to picturize his book, offering it to them for less than the price made him by another firm, because Sinclair Lewis wanted his biting sarcasm of the average American business man to reach the mass of people without any sugary falsity.

The drab people in "Babbitt," as Mary Alden, who plays Mrs. Babbitt, puts it, all have the souls of singing madrigals, until the inner life, suppressed, crushed, denied, screeches. The tragedy is a mental one, yet terribly intense in its simple background of dining room, real estate office and Tanis' drawing room. Many a battle scene has stirred you less.

Willard Louis, whose performance of the Prince of Wales in "Beau Brummel" is one of the sensational successes of the year, plays George F. Babbitt with the double psychology Sinclair Lewis gave him. You laugh at him, then a tear comes, for you say, "He's a fool, well, so am I. Here's to both of us!"

Dorothy Farnum has been equally as careful to bring over to the screen every nuance of the book.

Harry Beaumont, the director, too, can face Sinclair Lewis and the big public that already loves the book, unafraid. He has violated nothing. One commonplace scene after another is given with its subtle undercurrent of impending tragedy.

Are the "movies" really advancing to genuine interpretative art away from distortion and destruction of the great classics?

Well, "Babbitt," as it reveals itself in production, is at any rate.

THE GLENDALE

Hoot Gibson in "Broadway or Bust" concludes today at the Glendale theatre. "Butterfly" opens Sunday.

THE T. D. & L.

"Wine of Youth," concludes today at the T. D. & L. theatre. "His Hour," by Elinor Glyn, opens Sunday.

Broadcasting of regular radio programs of entertainment and news is now established in France, Germany, Sweden, Switzerland, the British Isles, Belgium, Denmark, Holland, Czechoslovakia and some cities of South America.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE CHESTNUTS

"Uncle Wiggily! Oh, ho! Uncle Wiggily!" shouted Baby Bunty to the rabbit gentleman one day. Mr. Longears was hopping along the path under the trees, and he hopped faster as he heard this cry.

"Don't run away from me—please don't!" begged Baby Bunty. "I want you to take me chestnutting."

At these words Uncle Wiggily turned quickly about, and his pink nose, which had stopped twinkling, began to shine again, like a star on top of the Christmas tree.

"Oh, Baby Bunty!" exclaimed the bunny uncle. "At first I thought it was the Woozie Wolf calling to me. That's why I hopped so fast. But I'm glad it is you. Now what did you want, Bunty?"

"Please take me where I can find some chestnuts," begged the little bunny girl.

"Why, we rabbits can't eat chestnuts—we haven't the right kind of teeth," said Uncle Wiggily. "I guess you mean you mean you want me to take you hunting carrots or lettuce, don't you?"

"No thank you, I want to go chestnutting," spoke Bunty.

"But you can't eat them, my dear!"

"I know, but I can give the chestnuts to Mrs. Bushytail, the lady squirrel," said Bunty. "She can eat them."

"Yes, I think she will be very glad to get them," spoke Mr. Longears. "It is very kind and thoughtful of you, Bunty. Well, come along to the chestnut woods!"

So Uncle Wiggily and the little rabbit girl hopped to the chestnut woods. The wind blew on the trees and scattered down the brown chestnuts, which bounced about on the ground.

"Pick up the shiny brown nuts, Bunty," said Uncle Wiggily. "We can gather lots of them for Mrs. Bushytail."

After a while Bunty gave a cry, as if in pain.

"What's the matter?" asked her uncle.

"This big green chestnut, with a lot of whiskers on it, bit me!" said Bunty. "Oh, it bit me hard!"

Uncle Wiggily hopped to where Bunty stood, and when he saw what the little girl rabbit had picked up he laughed.

"That's a chestnut inside the prickly burr," said the rabbit uncle. "It didn't bite you, but it stuck you, as a pin would do. There are shiny brown chestnuts inside that prickly burr, but we must wait for it to crack open before they come out. The frost will open the chestnut burrs for us, as it has done for a great many. The brown nuts on the ground came out of the prickly burrs that were burst open by the frost. Don't pick up any more burrs, Bunty."

"All right," said the little rabbit girl, "I won't. I'll just poke all the prickery, stickery chestnut burrs together in a pile. I'll leave them there for the frost to open."

She made a pile of prickly burrs, and she and Uncle Wiggily picked up the small, smooth, brown, shiny chestnuts. They had a bag nearly full when, all of a sudden, down out of a tree popped the Bob Cat. He had been watching his chance to jump on Uncle Wiggily.

"Look out!" cried Bunty, as she saw the Bob Cat leap.

Uncle Wiggily jumped out of the way just in time. And the bad Bob Cat, instead of landing on the rabbit, fell in the pile of prickly, stickery chestnut burrs Bunny had gathered.

"Wowchie! Owzie!" howled the Bob Cat, as the prickly burrs stuck in his feet and on his nose. "Oh, what a bad jump I made!"

And while the Bob Cat was pulling the stickers out of his feet, Uncle Wiggily and Bunty ran safely home with the brown chestnuts for Mrs. Bushytail. And so the Bob Cat didn't get the rabbit after all.

But if the rubber ball doesn't stuff itself through the keyhole so the door mat can't crawl in when it gets dark at night, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Katy.

A Home With Absolutely No Down Payment

The idea of financing and selling a modern home without requiring any down payment originated in the recognition of the simple fact that there are thousands upon thousands of fine citizens who would willingly turn their rent into purchasing a home if it were only possible to do so without placing a large lump sum down as first payment. We knew the stability of character of these people, and we concluded that such character was capital, and security, in itself. This was the source of our deliberations. The next thing was how can this be done? How can we build a modern five-room stucco home, with all the latest comforts and conveniences, in a better class district, where "people would like to make a home?" Such were the questions! And this is our answer: Pay us one per cent on the entire indebtedness per month and eight per cent will go as rent while the remainder will go into purchasing the home. Simple enough. And in about five years we will give you a Deed to the home providing you are still occupying the house and have proven your stability, whilst you give us an acceptable evidence of indebtedness. This may seem incredible, but, if you will call at our office we will prove that we are in a position to do this very thing and provide you with that home you have been dreaming of for so many years but have been unable to get because your money has been going to the landlord instead of to yourself. We have been in the building and finance business for many years. We do not boast when we say that we are thoroughly conversant with every department of building and the financing of buildings. We could not accommodate homeseekers, who have no capital to make the initial payment required on almost all homes, if we were not extensive builders. We have just completed some of the finest home values to be found in this state. They are on the Silverwood Tract in Eagle Rock. If you have never been in that neighborhood you will be surprised at the beauty and quiet of the place. You will say "Just the place for a home." And it is, and furthermore, you can make yourself a home without a cent first payment in one of the houses we have just mentioned if you are a stable resident. You can get us on the phone by calling Garfield 1145.

COMPOSERS GIVE OWN MUSIC WORK

Artists' Department of Local Club Hears Recital of Californians

California composers, in their own compositions, were heard last night at the meeting of the Artists' department of the Glendale Music club at the home of Charles B. Guthre, 1641 Grand View avenue. Miss Gertrude Cleophas arranged the program and secured the services of Anna Priscilla Risher, Max Donner, De Vere Nicholson and Mrs. Howard E. Cavanah.

Mrs. Risher presented a vocalist and a trio in her own compositions; Max Donner, accompanied by Mrs. Risher, gave his sonata for violin and piano. A feature of the program was the impressions of Yosemite given by De Vere Nicholson in his piano selections, "Temaya," "Flower Water" and "El Capitan." Mrs. Cavanah, accompanied by Wesley Kuhnle, sang a group of songs by Julius Kranz.

Special guests were Mrs. Graham S. Putman, president of the McDowell club; Dr. Von Liebich; and Mrs. Preston Fullen, who returned recently from study with Calve in New York. Mrs. Risher gave an interesting talk on the music shop to be opened in Los Angeles by the McDowell club, for the purpose of handling the work of American composers.

Glendale Intermediate School Wins In Soccer

Glendale avenue athletes proved themselves superior on the soccer field Friday afternoon when the junior teams from Glendale Intermediate and Wilson clashed. The score was 3-0, Dale Hurlburt's retiring from the field covered with glory. Amir Petty, physical training director at the Glendale Intermediate school was referee. The lineup:

ART DEPARTMENT TO OPEN PROGRAM

Tuesday Afternoon Club Will Divide Work Into Two Sections at Start

Fine Arts department of the Tuesday Afternoon club will open its program for the year with a meeting at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning in the palm court of the clubhouse. Mrs. Roy Ballagh, curator of this department, said preliminary to beginning the year, "The Fine Arts department will be divided into two sections—active work in practical design, under John W. Cotton, will meet at 10 o'clock, and the lecture on art will begin at 11 o'clock.

"These sections are open to all members of the club, whether they gave art training or not," she said. "The aim of the department is to give all an opportunity to express natural creative genius."

Guests of honor at the opening will be Benjamin C. Brown, artist, whose pictures now are on exhibition at the clubhouse; Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, Mrs. Daniel Campbell and Mrs. Alma J. Danford, Glendale librarian.

All members are asked to bring sketching pads and drawing pencils.

Residence Is Wrecked By Mystery Explosion

markably swift and worthy of special praise.

Inside, the Rook house presents a scene of indescribable confusion. The roof, which evidently was lifted high in the air, descended with a crash that completed the havoc wrought by the explosion itself, impaling itself on the bulged-out walls and creating such a litter of lath, plaster and fragments of woodwork as to render entrance almost impossible.

Captains Ralph Dodsworth and J. D. Meyer of the Glendale fire department, who rushed to the scene with apparatus from Station 1, were puzzled to determine the cause of the explosion, and this still remains a mystery. That a leak in the gas line filled the house with gas, seems certain, but no adequate explanation of what caused the gas to ignite has yet been found. On arrival, the fire department found a vicious blaze running up the east side of the house from a broken connection near the meter, and two hose were required to extinguish this blaze, according to Captain Dodsworth.

Along Kenilworth avenue, outside the wrecked house, is an open trench said to have been dug by the Southern California Gas Co., and Captain Dodsworth advances the theory that in digging this trench, the gas line into the Rook house was wrenched sufficiently to disconnect it from the meter, causing a heavy flow of gas to rise into the house and fill it like a balloon.

The Board of Underwriters had representatives on the premises this morning, it was said, looking over the damage, which is placed by the Glendale fire department at $5500 to the house and $300 to its contents, a total damage of $5,800, or practically the entire value of the house and furniture.

F. Cheverton of the California Christian college; H. I. Rasmus, Jr., and Eugene Wolf of Glendale.

Dinner will precede each session of the institute.

Humane Society Lays Plans for Annual Show

Glendale Humane society will co-operate with the Glendale Cat club in making the latter's annual show in December a success. Proceeds of a benefit will go toward the building fund of the Humane society. Humane society met last night in the Chamber of Commerce offices to perfect plans. Members present expressed gratification for the Tuesday Afternoon club's check for $10, presented by Mrs. B. O. Holbrook, director of the club.

La Foliette Club Hold Campaign Rally Tonight

Arrangements for a rally tonight at 8 o'clock at 108 North Brand boulevard were made at the meeting of the La Follette for President club last night. Mrs. J. D. Hail, Mrs. O. G. Thompson and Mrs. H. Black were elected on the executive committee and Mrs. O. G. Thompson was elected assistant secretary. C. F. Stuart, Glendale avenue druggist, was present after an absence of four weeks on a trip through eastern states. Mr. Stuart related his observations on the presidential situation and said that La Follette showed surprising strength in all the states he visited.

Hon. J. Stitt Wilson, ex-mayor of Berkeley, will speak at the meeting next Thursday night. Speakers for tonight's rally will be J. Richards, A. D. Curtis and ex-Congressman Randall, the latter being candidate again for the same office. Arrangements were made for the fife and drum corps parade in the city this afternoon and evening. A committee headed by Mr. Baslan will be present at the polls election day to distribute literature and give such information as may be requested by voters.

Man Freed on Charge Of Reckless Driving

Cesare Vincione of Los Angeles was found not guilty and released yesterday afternoon by a jury before Judge Frank H. Lowe of the Glendale police court, on a reckless driving charge. This trial was the outgrowth of an accident that occurred May 28, when Frank Lechner of 1129 East Maple avenue, a city employe, was knocked down and injured by an automobile driven by Vincione.

Mrs. Rea Undergoes Operation at Hospital

Mrs. A. M. Rea of 119 North Central avenue underwent major surgery this morning at the Glendale Research hospital.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

MATCHMAKING

"If I were to address you as I feel toward you, it would be 'Dearest Duckiest Doctor Lou,' but how dare I address such a dignified (?) person as yourself in that way?

"Here's the reason for all the exuberant hilarity. For a number of years I weighed—well, I'm ashamed to say it—but it was between 195 and 200, and most of the time nearer 200. One day, while I was making myself a dress, I became disgusted with the looks of yours truly in the glass and decided that no girl of 23, five feet seven and one-half inches tall, had any right to be such a clown.

"When I started to reduce, I weighed 197 pounds and eight ounces. Today, three and one-half months later, I tip the scales at 161 pounds and 10 ounces, which isn't so worse, as you must admit.

"Now, my friends think I'm quite thin enough. As a matter of fact, on the day I started dieting, I told mother I was going to get so thin that I could walk into every dress shop in which I have been told so often, 'That will make you look too kiddish,' or 'We'll have to order your size especially, miss', and stick my tongue out at the clerks. (Did you say reversion to type?) Last week I walked into a store, put on a size 38 dress that I liked, and walked out of the shop with it. Now, what do you think of that? From 44 to 38 in three months and one-half! Some one ought to write a story about it.

"However, what I want to do is to bless you for the good work you have done in taking ten years off my looks and adding fifty to my life. Also, listen, doctor: The boys are now asking me out! They must have been afraid I'd eat them out of their week's salaries before, but I'm really quite popular with the masculine sex now. You never knew before that you were a matchmaker, did you? You're likely to be, judging from the number of invitations I've received from the time 1 was 170 avoirdupois down to the present.

"Will it harm me to keep on reducing until I get down to about 145? I'd like to get a couple of pounds underweight, because I think there will be less inclination to stoutness then. What thinkest thou?

"Please don't mind my nonsense, but I've just come off the scales and am so happy that I must write you while I feel this way. Goodbye, and may your your joys increase as you girths decrease.—Ethel."

Anything I can do to help the F. F. F.'s realize they must reduce, I do with alacrity. Your letter will start a million or so! That's why I give nearly all of it. (You send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and 10 cents in stamps for the instructions.)

Yes, I have known all along that I am a matchmaker, Ethel. The saying, "Nobody loves a fat man," should be extended to include "or woman." Somehow, fatness and tender sentiment don't seem running mates. When you get down to normal weight, you won't have an inclination to stoutness, for you will have conquered your habit of overeating, and your craving for concentrated and rich foods.

Thank you so much for writing.

INGROWING TOE AND FINGER NAILS

Your baby is too fat, Mrs. F., which is undoubtedly the cause of his ingrowing toe and finger nails. Stop feeding him so much or he'll have something worse. Too fat babies are not resistant to disease. Feed him less often and in lessened amounts. Cut the nails square.

Mr. E.: There is no need of your being so "darn" thin. Send for our gaining instructions. See information above.

Tomorrow—Answers to Correspondents

My Dear Followers:—When sending for material which we offer you please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose four cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as soon as possible; if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S BIBLE COURSE

Conducted by REV. C. H. CHRISMAN

GOSPEL TABERNACLE CHURCH

Louise and Chestnut

Sunday Nights, 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock

THE RIGHT USE OF THE BIBLE

1. Own a good copy. One should not attempt to economize in the purchase of a Bible. The Bible is a book one wishes to keep a life time and it should have a binding and paper that will stand the wear and tear of daily use. It is your most valuable and most essential possession. The more familiar you become with your individual copy, the more reluctant you will be to make a change. Therefore, when you purchase be extravagant.

2. Keep it handy. If at all possible carry a copy with you. At least a pocket Testament could be carried. Many of the world's most successful Christians keep a copy of the Bible on a stand at their bedside so that they may read a portion just before sleeping and again upon awakening in the morning. And often the night watches are made fruitful by drinking at this fountain of living water.

3. Accent it as God's word. Do not attempt to prove it first and then read it. Read it and it will prove itself. If you approach it with doubt as to its Divine origin it will be a sealed book to you. Believe it and its Divine author will unfold it to your heart. When you open its pages stop long enough to say, "God is about to speak to me from His own word." The results of this attitude of heart and mind will be amazing.

4. Take time to read it. Paul Rader once gave three rules for Bible study. "First, read it. Second, read it. Third, read it." Read one book through several times without regard to chapters and verses. Read it through at one sitting, if possible. Do this repeatedly and soon you will have a surprising grasp of the book as a whole. You may think you have insufficient time for this, but time is a quantity that lends itself to our desire. We usually get time for the things we think most important. Time for the Bible must be taken from other things of less importance. Surely we should be able to find 20 minutes a day for the book of books!

5. Determine to obey it. The treasures of God's word are unlocked only to those who purpose to obey what it says. Christ Himself said, "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God or whether I speak of myself." It will be a living book to all who will say: This is God's word to me. I must do what it says.

6. Approach it reverently and prayerfully. There is none other book like it. Here you are treading upon holy ground. The truths recorded there are Divine and can be understood only as we have the illumination of the Holy Spirit. It is the work of the Spirit of God to open the Scriptures to our understanding. Pray for an understanding heart. "Then opened He their understanding that they might understand the Scriptures." Luke 24:45.

7. Search it energetically. "My son if thou will receive my words and hide my commandments with thee; so that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding; yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; if thou seekest her as silver and searchest for her as for hid treasures; then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord and find knowledge of God." Proverbs 2:15.

FOLEY PILLS REACHED THE SORE SPOT

Mrs. Ellen Reighard, South Fork, Pa., writes: "I had been suffering with my kidneys and nothing seemed to touch the aching spot until I procured FOLEY PILLS, with wonderful results." FOLEY PILLS, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, gently and thoroughly flush and cleanse the kidneys and help to eliminate poisonous waste matter. Try a bottle today and you will be well pleased with the relief obtained. The use of FOLEY PILLS increases kidney activity.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Church Reception

Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Mullen and family, and new members of the Pacific Avenue Methodist church were honored at a reception given last night by aid members. Almost the entire membership of the church and a large number of friends were present. The reception was held in the new Sunday school room, which had been prettily decorated in a color scheme of pink and white, cosmos and roses being used. Floor lamps were used to cast a soft light over the room. Mrs. L. P. Tronsier had charge of the decorations. The program opened with the singing of "Blest be the Tie that Binds" and was followed by prayer led by Harold Adams. The welcome address was given by George Moore and with response by Mr. Mullen. Two piano selections were given by D. Kessler, and readings were given by Mrs. Don McGill and Mrs. Marlow. Rev. L. C. Kline, Dr. Moss and Rev. J. C. Livingston gave short talks Mesdames E. H. Scott, George Moore and H. L. Adams were in charge of the program. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served by the committee composed of Mrs. C. C. Stevenson, and Mrs. Miller.

At K. C. Clubhouse

The weekly card part at the Knights of Columbus auditorium, Wednesday night, proved a huge success, the proceeds going to the school fund. This coming week the Altar society will have charge of the Wednesday night card party. Mesdames H. M. Doll, T. J. Kelleher and Herman Nelson will be hostesses. Special tables will be prepared for the young people and a number of prizes awarded. A special prize for each row of tables will be in order and light refreshments will be served.

Dinner at Church

A jolly Hallowe'en dinner party was enjoyed last night at the First Baptist church by forty members and guests of the Mizpah class. Yellow chrysanthemums, orange and black streamers and pumpkin lanterns were features of the table arrangement. After the dinner hour an informal program of games was carried out. Mrs. George McLeod was chairman of the dinner committee. Mrs. E. L. Lippole headed the entertainment group.

Plan For Social

Plans for a box social to be held November 7 were made at the meeting last night of the Royal Neighbors held in the Knights of Pythias hall, South Brand boulevard and Park avenue. Mrs. T. A. Rucker was appointed chairman of a committee to arrange details for the social. The Sewing Circle will meet all day Thursday at the home of Mrs. Minnie Paul, 161 South Pacific avenue.

♣ ♣ ♣

Leads Law Study

Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, parliamentarian of the Tuesday Afternoon club, is to have charge of the drill Monday afternoon at the first meeting of the Parliamentary Law department. Teachers Honorees

The reception given for teachers of the Pacific school by members of the Parent-Teacher association of last night was a decided success, the company unanimously voting to have another similar affair in the near future. Everyone attending received a name card to wear during the evening. The teachers were presented with corsage bouquets by the Parent-Teacher association. Decorations were Hallowe'en features with orange and black crepe paper and cornstocks arranged effectively. Mrs. W. G. Lauderdale, president, president over the meeting, with Mrs. Dean Phillips, program chairman, who announced the program. The program opened with the salute to the flag by the audience, led by Mrs. Kimball, patriotic chariman. Using a collection of rhymes, Mr. Butterfield introduced the teachers to the audience. Mrs. Kemp, instructor of music in the Wilson Intermediate school, led the community singing during the evening, with Mrs. Crossland as accompanist. Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, gave a short greeting and humorous readings were given by Miss Gladys Kattleman. Following the program several mothers volunteered to be room mothers in the association. During the program the children were entertained in a classroom by Mrs. Harry Greenwalt and treated to apples while their parents were served doughnuts and coffee by Mrs. Ross Mescher, courtesy chairman and her assistants.

Hallowe'en Party

Mrs. Harry Moore and Mrs. Charles Rushworth entertained members of the junior department of the Central Methodist church yesterday afternoon and evening with a Hallowe'en masquerade party. Two classes are included in the department and Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Rushworth are the teachers. The party was given at the Rushworth home, 432 West Garfield avenue. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of chrysanthemums arranged in baskets and vases. Witches, cats and goblins were used to express the Hallowe'en spirit. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock, covers being laid for twenty-five. Games and contests formed the entertainment and the awarding of prizes for the best costumed persons afforded much merriment. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Elgin Humrichouse and Mrs. Warren West.

Interprets Opera

Interpretation of Rossini's opera, "The Barber of Seville," was given yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Music department of the Tuesday Afternoon club at the clubhouse. Madame Gloria Bretherton, who is to have charge of the opera recitals for the department, presented the program. Her talk was illustrated with wonderful records of the opera, played on a phonograph loaned by the Glendale Music company. Gilman Williams, baritone, accompanied by Mary Parker Williams, sang "Largo," from the opera. Mrs. Robert T. Young, curator, presided over the meeting. Late in the afternoon tea was served by Mrs. E. W. Kinney. There will be four opera recitals included in the Music department program for the club year.

Form Bridge Club

The first meeting of the Friday Bridge club was held at the home of Mrs. L. M. Wallace at 337 West Elk street last night. Members of the club decided to hold meetings every two weeks. Three tables of bridge were played last night and prizes were presented to Mrs. Guy Carlton and Paul E. Stillman. Rrefreshments were served later. Members of the club are: Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Stillman, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carlton, Mrs. L. M. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hinshaw and J. R. Manning. The next meeting will be held November 7 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carlton on Campbell street.

Mah Jongg Party

Miss Mildred Mentzer entertained a company of friends Wednesday night at a mah jongg party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mentzer, 326 West Cypress street. Four tables of mah jongg were arranged and later music was enjoyed. A delicious luncheon was served later by the hostess. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Richards, Miss Dorothy Chandler, Miss Hazel Duncan, Miss Geneva Schrieder, Mr. Lindemuth, H. Schrieder, Don Garber, John Findley, Mr. and Mrs. Mentzer, Miss Pearl Mentzer, Robert Hentzer, of Glendale, Herman Hunning, of Los Angeles and John Findley, of Burbank.

Holding Bazaar

A bazaar is being held today under the auspices of the Royal Neighbors of America at the Glendale Electric company, 132 North Brand boulevard. Mrs. Rosa B. Anderson with a corps of women are in charge. Articles of fancywork are on sale as well as cooked foods. The sale started at 10 o'clock and will continue through the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Coons is in charge of the food sale.

Japanese Tea

The Stitch and Chatter club of the Live Cole class, Central Christian church, held a Japanese silver tea yesterday from 2 to 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Homer B. Miller, 434 West Burchett street. Chrysanthemums were used in decoration. During the afternoon refreshments of tea and rice cake were served. A continuous program of musical numbers, and readings, as well as social converse, interspersed with radio and victrola, kept the guests entertained. The program was: Violin solo, "By the Waters of Minnetonka," Evangeline Quackenbush, with Mrs. Stanley B. Walker, accompanist; whistling solo, "Just An Old Love Song," Mrs. I. B. Carlock; reading, "Lucindy Expects a Legacy," Mrs. Uhlenbrock; whistling solo, " 'Neath the Autumn Moon," Mrs. I. B. Carlock; reading, "Husbands is Husbands," Mrs. Martha Hunter; reading, "Pete, the Peddler," Mrs. G. Edwin Murphy. The readings were given by talent from the Emerson School of Self-Expression. A neat sum was realized from the tea as well as yards of material which will give the club something to "stitch" upon while it "chatters."

School Affair

Teachers of the Acacia school were complimented with a reception given last night by the Parent-Teacher association at the auditorium of the Glendale Intermediate school. The program opened with the song, "Dixie Song" by the Girls' glee club of the Glendale Intermediate school. Dr. Von Liebich, internationally known composer gave a short talk on music and then entertained the audience by playing "On Wings of Song," Mendelssohn-Liebich. La Verne Welsh appeard in a clever oriental costume dance. Miss Hazel Campbell gave a reading, "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" and responded to an encore. Margaret and LaVerne Welsh and Constance Lefler appeared in a butterfly dance in costume. O. M. Newby, minute man, gave a short talk on the proposed civic center. Mrs. R. N. Stryker, president of the association introduced the teachers to the audience. The company adjourned to the cafeteria where they were led in amusing games by Loren Mitchell, supervisor of playgrounds in Los Angeles. The children were entertained by games and stories by Mrs. W. B. Alexander and Mrs. L. D. Torrey. Refreshments of homemade cake, punch and coffee were served by Mrs. Ethel Gardner, chairman of the courtesy committee.

Bazaar Success

The Women's Relief corps was most successful in the all-day bazaar held yesterday in the G. A. R. hall on South Glendale avenue. While no definite report has been made of the results, it is predicted that the women will realize close to $150. Many useful and lovely things were on sale. Adding greatly to the pleasure of the occasion was the noon dinner, with members of the G. A. R. and several special guests present. Mr. Haskins of Los Angeles, past department commander, was present, and also the commander of the Southern California Veterans' association. Both gave short talks. In the afternoon the W. R. C. held a short business meeting, during which one candidate for membership was initiated.

Sew For Bazaar

The Poppy circle of the women's auxiliary of the First Congregational church held an all-day meeting yesterday with Mrs. A. S. Chase, 400 Riverdal drive. The meeting was a special one called to finish articles for the bazaar to be held in the church November 13 and 14. Members of the circle are completing articles for the furnishing of the bedroom and bathroom of a home for the bazaar. Luncheon was served at the noon hour. The next regular meeting of the circle before the bazaar will be held November 6 in the home of Mrs. Fred Warner on East Chestnut street.

Membership in some of the well-known clubs of London is dropping off, and, instead of sitting complacently with long waiting list on file, the offficers are instituting impromptu drives with the hope of interesting young people in their organizations.

RECORD CROWD EXPECTED AT BALL PARK SUNDAY

GLENDALIANS TO HONOR M'NEELY

World Series Star to Play With White Sox Against Hollywood Merchants

The grandstand at the White Sox ball park on San Fernando road is going to be taxed to the limit, automobiles will be parked in every available foot of space around the playing field, and rooters unable to get into the grandstand will swarm over the field tomorrow afternoon when Glendale and vicinity pay homage to Earl McNeely, outstanding star of the world series, who will play his second game with the Glendale White Sox.

McNeely's first game with the White Sox is being played this afternoon at Goodyear park, where the local team is meeting the St. Louis Giants. Tomorrow afternoon, on the home grounds, the pale hose crew, with McNeely in the lineup, will play Floyd Carleton's Hollywood Merchants, an aggregation of baseball stars from three leagues.

This afternoon Dick Bonelly, Kansas City Blues' pitcher, is doing the mound work for the White Sox, with Denny Murphy of the Vernon Coast league team working behind the plate. Tomorrow Ken Penner, pitching ace of the Vernon crew, will hurl for the White Sox, with Elmer Reiger, former Coast leaguer, and one time mainstay of the Glendale pitching staff, doing the mound-work for the Hollywood Merchants.

Stellar Lineup

The stellar lineup for Glendale tomorrow afternoon will include: McNeely, Penner, Ping Bodie, who started smashing homers with the Seals years ago and made the circuit of American, National and Western league clubs; Ray French, sensational shortstop who has played with the Yanks, Boston Red Sox, Chicago White Sox and Minneapolis teams; Bill Shields, our own home town lad, who has been fielding and hitting at a great clip lately; Charley Dorman, the local Babe Ruth; "Chicken" Hawks, fastest first baseman in the winter league; Pfahler, classy second baseman from Catalina and others.

McNeely will play his customary position of outfielder, and will be lead-off man on the batting list. Bodie will play in the field, and will be clean-up man with the stick.

McNeely Is Elk

The members of the local Elks lodge will honor McNeely during his stay in the city, inasmuch as McNeely is a member of the order. Many of the Glendale Bills will be occupying box seats tomorrow afternoon. Members of the Kiwanis club will occupy a box, while the Exchange club has reserved a box.

Hollywood will be represented by more than 2000 baseball fans from the Movie City, who will accompany the Hollywood Merchants to Glendale, and will boost for their team until the last strike is called.

A few box seats for Sunday's game are available and can be secured this afternoon from George Lyons, at 1300 South Brand boulevard. Tomorrow's game will start at 2:30 o'clock. The ball park is located at San Fernando road and Park avenue.

JOHN B. FOSTER'S VIEWS

Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Whenever something untoward happens prior to the world series, there is a demand for a change in the method of conducting the games. But the real source of the trouble—the great amount of money involved—is always overlooked.

When the bribery exposure was made by Commissioner Landis this fall, some of the theorists quickly trotted forth their idea of a bi-league series after the 15 of August each season. The plan to select a representative team from all the players of each league also was brought forward again.

There is grave doubt as to whether the former plan—the playing of a series between the leagues after August 15—would help the situation any. The players of teams too far down the list to have any hope of getting into the money might permit their league alliance to run away with them, and scandal break out in another direction. Moreover, it would mean a most unsatisfactory curtailment of the league seasons themselves.

As for the all-star selected team, that is mere horse-play. The idea does not possess a single sporting element. It would bring the world series closer to a "show" than it is now. Winners to play against winners, as is the case now, is the only way to handle such a series.

Conservative owners of the two leagues are opposed to a modification of the existing system, which rewards the winners for what they have done on the field. That indirect reward should be paid to those who are only accessary to the championship never was intended. The fact that the runners-up get a part of the series money is the sole existing argument now used by those who charge that baseball is syndicated.

The heads of the Major Leagues, who must be controlled by the individual voters of the clubs, composing the circuits, are not in accordance with any change that would reduce the series to a contest between 16 clubs instead of two. And there is not much likelihood that the owners would vote for any such plan, any more than they would favor a selection of all star teams to battle for the championship.

DYNAMITERS BLAST HOPES OF MONROVIA CREW, 25-0

Glendale High School Team Leading Central League with Two Decisive Victories and No Defeats; Score Each Period

By ROSS M. RUSSELL, JR.
Of The Evening News Staff.

The Glendale Dynamiters boosted themselves a notch higher yesterday by trampling on the Monrovia Wild Cats before a large crowd of local fans, which outnumbered the Monrovia turnout, at the foothill city, 25 to 0. The locals would have run up a higher score had the last half not been shortened and had not two offside plays cheated them out of touchdowns.

Jack Booker, second string half back, who started the game for the locals in place of Muff who was injured last Friday, was responsible for most of the big Glendale gains. But Elliott played his usual brilliant game and Captain Dick Ryan did his share by shoving the ball over for twelve points.

Start Scoring

Almost the first play showed that the Dynamiters would come out on the big end of the score. After receiving the kick-off the Green and White boys were forced to punt. The locals had the ball on their thirty-five yard line when Bud Elliott took the oval for a twenty yard journey around left end. Bud made eight more paces on a line buck and Denny went through the line for Glendale yards. The locals made yards again. Bud again went around left and, this time for fifteen yards. This brought the ball to the Monrovia five yard line and Dick Ryan went over for the first touchdown. Bud Elliott's drop kick was low.

Monrovia kicked to Bud on the Glendale ten-yard line and the Glendale quarter ran the ball back twenty yeards. Booker made five yards and Denney made first downs with two line bucks. Booker ripped off twenty yards on an off tackle play. Bud Elliott skirted left end for eighteen yards and a pass from Denney to Elliott brought the pigskin to the Monrovia two yard line. Bud took the ball over but the referee claimed a Glendale offsides and penalized the locals five yards. Ryan took the ball around left end for a touchdown but again there was a Glendale man offsides. On the third attempt Ryan was nearly four yards short and Bud Elliott's drop kick for a field goal was deflected by one of the Monrovia players.

Pass Intercepted

The Dynamiters were not to be cheated of their touchdown, however, for after the Wildcats kicked to the locals on their forty-five yard line Ellsworth de Parcq jumped into the air and nabbed Denney's long pass and ran twenty-five yards for a touchdown. Ryan's drop kick for the extra point was wide.

At the start of the second quarter a forward pass, Elliott to Phillips netted twenty yards and an end run by Elliott gained thirteen more. The locals made yards on line bucks and Ryan took the ball over the line for the locals' third touchdown. This time Elliott kicked goal.

The Wildcats threatened the Glendale goal in the last of the second quarter when Minsel intercepted a Glendale pass and later made Monrovia yards for the first and last time during the game. A second Monrovia pass was broken up by Booker.

Punting Game

The teams exchanged punts with the Dynamiters gaining twenty yards due to Booker's long forty yard punt. Then Minsel punted to Booker on the Glendale ten yard line and the latter ran the ball back twenty yards. Booker made twenty more on the next play around left end. Glendale gained twenty more yards in an exchange of kicks and a fifteen yard penalty on Monrovia for tripping brought the pill on the Wildcats' eight yard line. Elliott went over on an end run for the locals' final touchdown. Bud's drop kick failed. The game ended without anything exciting save Lundie's forty-five yard punt.

The Dynamiters worked with great success their new "end over" play. A moment before the ball is snapped one end runs around behind the back to receive the ball and is used for interference. This was the play used by Hayhurst's boys on nearly all of their long end runs.

With such an overwhelming victory over Monrovia tucked away the Dynamiters have little to fear of the Moors who fought the Wildcats a 0-0 tie last Friday. Covina, Glendale's most dangerous rivals, were nosed out last Friday by the South Pasadena Tigers, 3-0.

RINGSIDE GOSSIP by FAIR PLAY

Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Will Jock Malone try to sneak into the ring against Mickey Walker weighing within the welter limit? If he does, he won't surprise Mickey who is taking such a plan into account.

Jock is a middleweight and it has not been understood that he would try to reduce down. And, in fact, nothing has come from his camp that he will. It is more speculation than anything else.

He is working out at the Chicago Athletic club and rumors about his welterweight intentions have been caused by the vigor of his exercise. Of course, if he should appear at the welter limit, he might be pretty well weakened and this would not be a good thing considering the man whom he is going to tackle.

And, again, since decisions are not permitted in Jersey—where the battle is to take place—he would have to knock Walker out to win the title. Even newspaper decisions would not gain him the crown.

Walker has already lost a decision to the Minnesotan—it was before Mickey was champion—and he knows Jock's style, which is a tying up method of boxing, pretty well.

He figures that his improved wallop will deal effectively with these tactics if Malone seeks to repeat them. A knockout, of course, is what Mickey is after since, seeing that Leonard is not going to fight him, he wants to meet Harry Creb for the middleweight crown.

Greb is willing to tackle almost anyone but to date has not given three cheers about meeting the slugging Jerseyman.

BASEBALL

The Pasadena Merchants will entertain Jasper's All Stars at Brookside park tomorrow. An auto polo game will follow the ball contest.

The Portland Beavers may train at Pasadena next spring, it is rumored. Tom Turner and Duffy Lewis are looking over the grounds today.

In the San Fernando Valley league tomorrow San Fernando hooks up with Van Nuys at Van Nuys; Lankershim plays at Zelzah; Tom Mix and his Wildcats play at Owensmouth, and Gene Murphy's gang journeys to Burbank.

"Ferdie" Schupp, former New York Giant hurler, will pitch for the Gilmore Oilers tomorrow against the St. Louis Giants.

LAWRENCE PERRY SAYS

dale Evening News, Copyright, 1924 Special Correspondent of The Glen-

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Differences in interpretations of football rules as between the east and middle west may lead eventually to the game being played under one set of rules in the west and another in the east—unless the rules committee begins to take a very broad gauged view of its functions.

A western coach summed up a general feeling of impatience when he said to the writer recently that the present flaw in the game of football was the absence of a central authority to whom all coaches in whatever section of the country could appeal for rulings and interpretations with the knowledge that such dicta were final and binding. A supreme authority is wanted.

That the rules committee as it now exists is not so considered in the west is made apparent by the fact that the conference coaches and officials have supplied their own interpretations—some of which are at variance with the official interpretations.

The chairman of the rules committee is appealed to on a point and a letter is received from some member of the committee to whom the question has been submitted, usually Bill Langford and occasionally Walter Camp.

There is the feeling in the west, too, that when through some oversight, or partial understanding, a rule as formulated by the commitee is not copper-riveted, or is poorly conceived, the committee seeks to support it instead of admitting a mistake has been made and proceeding to remedy the defect in a frank and open way.

The feeling among scouts and officials who have seen Princeton working its way through the season is that Notre Dame will find a different sort of cat in the jungle today than it found a year ago. Play of the Tigers in the first half of the navy game was not impressive but in the second half the team seemed to find itself for the first time this season and literally battered its opponents down to defeat.

Just how successfully Nassau will cope with Notre Dame's elusive shift attack remains to be seen. It is a difficult attack to stop and while the Tigers may not be altogether efficient in handling it, the chances are that the South Bend team will not run wild as last year while at the same time Princeton is likely to have an offense of her own—which is more than can be said of the Orange and Black eleven that faced the Indians in 1923.

Princeton has a football tradition and a wealth of coaching material which year by year ever since intercollegiate football has been played have kept the Tigers among the leaders in in the game. It is reasonable to suppose that all their resources were expended this week in laying plans to prevent another disaster such as occurred last year long about this time.

Notre Dame adherents expect their team to win by about three touchdowns, and are willing to give Princeton one touchdown. As to this the writer has no present opinion but his feeling is that Notro Dame will richly earn every touchdown she gets.

Hoppe Wins 3-Cushion Match From Keckhefer

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Willie Hoppe, balkline champion, stands out today as a master of the more difficult three-cushion game. He defeated Augie Keckhefer, one of the stars of the angle game, in their four-day match by a score of 400 to 279. In winning, Hoppe averaged better than one, requiring but 393 innings for the 400 points. Hoppe won all eight blocks of 50 points each. Yesterday's scores were 50 to 36 and 50 to 40.

WALTER CAMP SAYS

Special Correspondent of the Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The state of Pennsylvania, always a developer of remarkable football teams, is going to have more than its usual number of star aggregations this year. Penn, Penn State, Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson all have strong teams and Pittsburgh, despite the loss of Glenn Warner, promises to do well under Sutherland.

Pennsylvania has made up its mind that this is the year to turn the tables on Cornell, and incidentally take some revenge on other friends. Lou Young has one or two stars about whom not much is generally known, but who are the real thing and promise to bolster up Penn's attack.

Coach Bezdek has not been entirely satisfied with his Penn state team for a year or two, and has started a few innovations in the line of attack which are likely to prove deceptive.

Two years ago, Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson showed the most advanced football of any teams in the country when they met for that memorable game on the Polo Grounds in which Lafayette scored 13 points in the first half and Washington and Jefferson came back with 14 points in the second half. Neither was quite up to the standard last year, but both look good this fall.

Close by, though outside the state of Pennsylvania, is Spear's West Virginia team which bestowed such a decisive defeat upon Rutgers last fall and promises to be quite as strong as last season, in the long run, despite the Pitt upset.

Dr. Wilce at Ohio State has many problems this season, not the least of which is to increase the morale of his squad and bring it back to the old days when Ohio State always expected to win and saw no other side of the picture.

Captain Young, at center, is a good nucleus and Wilce has a good end in Cunningham and a promising tackle in Nichols. Juny and Cameron are good signal givers and Klee might be pressed in as quarter if he were needed. He is a good half back. Wendler and Carlson make a good pair of halves, while Devoe and Hunt are both good full backs. But from what the writer has heard from several quarters, the real star of the backfield very likely will be Karow, a last year's freshman. A friend of the writer who is in a position to watch the development of Ohio State very closely, told the writer recently that Karow looked like one of the real stars of the west.

Earl McNeely, Washington Senator outfielder, was given an ovation when he was introduced from the ring.

BOXING NOTES

A pound and a half of weight cost Georgie Rivers his chance to do any further fighting in the bantam tourney being staged at the Hollywood Legion Stadium, although Rivers succeeded in winning a close decision from Teddy Silva last night. Bert Tribby took a terrible beating from Mickey Rockson, but was still fighting at the final bell. Johnny Mendez defeated Bud Soules. Benny Irwin got a shade over Joe Kelly. Sailor Fernandez won the decision over Billy Young Young Danny and Billy Blake went four rounds to a draw. Jack Hester won the decision over Eddie West.

BOWLING SCORES

The Glendale Bootery trimmed the Red Feather Materials, and the Psenner Bros. team dropped three straight games to the Brown Drugs in last night's matches played in the Mercantile league at the Recreation alleys. The Red Feathers rallied after being snowed under the first game, and copped the second by a fair margin, but fell by the wayside in the third game. The scores:

Council Minutes

Minutes of the Glendale City Council, prepared by city clerk

Council assembled at 10 a. m., October 23, 1924. All members present. Reading of minutes of October 16 dispensed with.

Opening of Bids

In accordance with call, bids were publicly opened, examined and declared for furnishing of all material and labor and the construction of sections 1, 2 and 3 of the Glendale-San Fernando valley intercepting sewer, from the following bidders: Chas. and Geo. K. Thompson, D. A. Foley & Co., Martin Petrovich, Thos. Kelly & Sons, Inc., C. E. Green, Gibbons & Reed Co., C. A. Spicer, United Concrete Pipe Co., R. A. Wattson. Moved by Councilman Hall, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, duly carried, that bids be referred to the engineers for checking and report.

Adopt Map

Councilman Gilhuly introduced a resolution entitled, "A resolution adopting map of tract 8620 and accepting on behalf of the public the avenues, streets, alleys and public places shown thereon," which was read, and on his motion, seconded by Councilman Hall, the same was numbered resolution No. 2629 and adopted.

Continued Hearing

This being the time set for continued hearing on appeals from the determination of the superintendent of streets in making his assessment, warrant and diagram, covering the costs and expenses for the improvement of business district alleys in accordance with resolution of intention No. 2017, clerk reported that he had received protests signed by W. E. Evans, Edith M. Huntley, John B. Tate and others, and there were no protestants present. On motion of Councilman Kimlin, seconded by Councilman Davis, the appeals of W. E. Evans, Edith M. Huntley, John B. Tate and others were sustained, and superintendent of streets was instructed to amend and modify said assessment by putting a more adequate assessment on Harvard street school property in accordance with the appeal of W. E. Evans, Edith M. Huntley and others, and to amend and modify said assessment in accordance with the appeal of John B. Tate. Moved by Councilman Gilhuly, seconded by Councilman Hall, that the appeal of H. M. Jameson in relation to assessments, was denied.

Watson Court

The clerk notified the council that this was the time, hour and place fixed for continued hearing of protests or objections against the proposed improvement, or the extent of the district to be assessed for the improvement of Watson street, Alameda avenue Mountain street and certain rights of way in the city of Glendale, as particularly described in resolution of intention No. 2602, passed by the said council on September 18, 1924, and the clerk also reported to the council that he had received written protests, and same having been checked by city engineer, were returned showing 32.6 per cent. Whereupon, the mayor asked if there were any interested persons present who desired to be heard, and property owners present were given full opportunity to show cause why the proposed improvement should not be carried out in accordance with the said resolution of intention, and all objections having been heard and considered; on motion of Councilman Hall, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, duly carried, all protests were denied. Whereupon, Councilman Gilhuly introduced a resolution entitled, "A resolution of the council of the city of Glendale ordering certain improvements to be made on portions of Watson street, Alameda avenue, Mountain street and certain rights of way owned by the city of Glendale, within the city of Glendale," which was read, and on his motion, seconded by Councilman Kimlin, the same was numbered resolution No. 2630 and adopted.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GLENDALE:

SECTION 1: That all that real property in the City of Glendale, described as Lots 47 and 48 of Houston's West Glendale Tract, as per map recorded in Book 12, Page 37, of Maps, Records of Los Angeles County, California, is hereby excluded from First Class Residential District No. 16 of the City of Glendale, and is hereby declared to be a part of the Residential District of said City.

SECTION 2: The City Clerk shall certify to the passage of this ordinance and shall cause the same to be published once in the Glendale Evening News, the official newspaper of said City, and it shall take effect and be in force on the thirtieth day after its passage.

Passed by the Council of the City of Glendale on this 23rd day of October, 1924.

SPENCER ROBINSON,

Mayor of the City of Glendale.

ATTEST:

A. J. VAN WIE,

City Clerk of the City of Glendale.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,)
COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES,) ss
CITY OF GLENDALE.)

I, A. J. VAN WIE, City Clerk of the City of Glendale, do hereby certify that the foregoing Ordinance was duly adopted by the Council of the City of Glendale, State of California, at its regular meeting held on the 23rd day of October, 1924, by the following vote, to-wit:

AYES. Davis, Gilhuly, Kimlin, Robinson.
NOES: None.
ABSENT: Hall.

A. J. VAN WIE,

City Clerk of the City of Glendale.

Oct. 25, 1924.

ORDINANCE NO. 989

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTIONS 19, 30 AND 32 OF ORDINANCE NO. 573 OF THE CITY OF GLENDALE, PASSED MAY 17, 1922, AND ENTITLED, "AN ORDINANCE FOR LICENSING AND REGULATING THE CARRYING ON OF CERTAIN PROFESSIONS, TRADES, CALLINGS AND OCCUPATIONS IN THE CITY OF GLENDALE; PRESCRIBING THE PENALTY FOR VIOLATIONS OF THIS ORDINANCE AND REPEALING ORDINANCE 274 AND ALL AMENDMENTS THEREOF AND REPEALING ALL OTHER PARTS OF ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT HEREWITH."

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GLENDALE:

SECTION 1: That Section 19 of Ordinance No. 573 of the City of Glendale, passed May 17, 1922, and entitled, "An Ordinance for Licensing and Regulating the Carrying on of Certain Professions, Trades, Callings and Occupations in the City of Glendale; Prescribing the Penalty for Violations of This Ordinance and Repealing Ordinance 274 and all Amendments Thereof and Repealing all Other Parts of Ordinances in Conflict Herewith," is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 19: For every person, firm or corporation conducting, managing or carrying on a fire, wreck, bankrupt or damaged goods sale, $200.00 per month.

For the purpose of this ordinance a "fire, wreck, bankrupt or damaged goods sale" is defined to be and include the sale of goods, wares and merchandise salvaged from a fire, wreck or other calamity, or a sale of goods, wares and merchandise of a bankrupt or purchased from a receiver in bankruptcy, or a sale of goods, wares, or merchandise advertised as either a fire, wreck, bankrupt or damaged goods sale.

Provided, that no license shall be required under the provisions of this section for the sale of goods, wares or merchandise salvaged from any fire, wreck or other calamity occurring in the City of Glendale, or for the sale of goods, wares and merchandise by any person, firm or corporation sold or advertised as bankrupt stock, where such goods, wares or merchandise were, immediately prior to the insolvency of such person, firm or corporation, offered for sale from a regularly established place of business in the City of Glendale.

SECTION 2: That Section 30 of said Ordinance No. 573 is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 30: For every person, firm or corporation conducting, managing or carrying on the business of selling, contracting to sell, taking orders for, or offering to sell or take orders for, goods, wares and merchandise or any article by sample or order, or upon commission for himself or any other person, or for service to be performed in the future, or for the making, manufacturing or repairing of any article or thing whatsoever for future delivery, the sum of $15.00 per week.

Any person, except as hereinafter provided, desiring a license to engage in the business mentioned in this section within the City of Glendale, shall first make application therefor to the City Clerk of said City on forms provided by him, stating the name and address of applicant, the address of the person, firm or corporation which he represents, if any, and the kind of goods offered for sale, or the kind of services to be performed. Such application shall be accompanied by a bond in the penal sum of $500.00 executed by a surety company or two responsible property holders residing in the City of Glendale, (or in lieu thereof a cash bond of equal amount), said bond to be conditioned upon the making of final delivery of any goods ordered or services to be performed for any resident of said City in accordance with the terms of any order therefor, or failing therein, that the advance payment, if any, be refunded. Any person aggrieved by the action of any licensee under this section shall have a right of action on the said bond for the recovery of money or damages, or both. Such bond shall remain in full force and effect, and in case of a cash deposit, such deposit shall be retained by the City of Glendale for a period of ninety (90) days after the expiration of any such license, unless sooner released by the City Council of said City; provided, that no license shall be required from any person whose business is limited to the sale of goods, wares and merchandise at wholesale to retail merchants. It is also provided that nothing in this section contained shall apply to any person having a regularly established place of business in the City of Glendale for the manufacture or sale of such goods, wares or merchandise, or to the agents of any such person.

SECTION 3: That Section 32 of said Ordinance No. 573 is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 32: For every person firm or corporation engaged in the business or occupation of an itinerant vendor, $25.00 for the first day, and $10.00 per day thereafter.

The words "itinerant vendor" shall be construed to mean and include all persons, both principal and agent, who engage in a temporary and transient business in the City of Glendale, selling goods, wares or merchandise with the intention of continuing said business in said City for a period of not more than ninety (90) days, and who, for the purpose of carrying on such business, hire, lease or occupy any room, building or structure for the exhibition or sale of such goods, wares or merchandise, and the person or firm so engaged shall not be relieved from the provisions of this section by reason of associating temporarily with any local dealer, trader, merchant or auctioneer, or by conducting such temporary or transient business in connection with, or as a part of, or in the name of any local dealer, trader, merchant or auctioneer.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to commercial travelers or selling agents selling their goods to dealers, whether selling for present or future deliveries, by sample or otherwise, nor to hawkers on the streets, nor peddlers from vehicles, not to persons selling fruit, vegetables, butter, eggs, or other farm or ranch products.

SECTION 4: The City Clerk shall certify to the passage of this ordinance and shall cause the same to be published once in The Glendale Evening News, the official newspaper of said City, and it shall take effect and be in force on the thirtieth day after its passage.

PRICE CUT TO $6950
DIRECT FROM OWNER AND ON TERMS

Conditions make it imperative that I sell at once and without delay or usual price dickering. I have cut the price over $1000 in one big slash; and remember, please, this cut is not made on a piece of property away out with a big boom value, but on a close-in high grade, coming location; cut to away under cost of producing at present market. $4850 of this low price of $6950 is 7 pct. money which a reduction of $50 a month carries, leaving $2100 equity, payable $950 cash, $600 Feb. 1925 and $600 Aug., 1925; I will be at the house any time or phone Glen. 4258, no trades considered.

CHURCHES

At the Glendale Presbyterian church an innovation will be introduced Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, who asks that all in attendance bring a copy of the New Testament or the Bible, as responsive readings will be read directly from the Bible. This request is expected to have a wide appeal, particularly to the young people who are members of the Pocket Testament league.

Central Christian

Church at Colorado and Louise streets. Rev. Clifford Cole, pastor; Floyd Mercer, director of religious education; H. S. Larkin, choir director. COMMENT by GIL A. COWAN

Political upsets are predicted November 4 in well informed circles. Sentiment crystallizing at the last moment, as it were, in favor of Calvin Coolidge, gives rise to the forecast that the Republicans will have a conservative majority in the senate and the house of representatives also will be strengthened, due to the general weakness of the Democrats in face of third party opposition.

It is more than probable that the La Follette movement will work to the decided advantage of the Republicans, who have conducted an economical and well directed campaign.

In the various states some interesting results are anticipated. Wyoming and Texas probably will have women governors.

The general election is the one prevailing topic of the day.

In the excitement the Glendale public does not want to forget the state and municipal issues to be voted upon. Each registered voter will receive prior to the election a resume of the various initiative and referendum measures with the pro and con set forth.

This writer is in no position to recommend any of the projects, although many are worthy and not a few unworthy.

You will do well to be advised.

In the matter of the city bonding itself to purchase the old high school site, voters should remember that their dollars will do double duty.

First, the municipal government will acquire valuable civic center property; second, the Glendale Union High school district will be provided funds with which to complete its building program.

Otherwise it will be necessary for school bonds in a similar sum to be voted, which is considered by many as less economical than the mutual swap afforded by the civic center project.

This writer voted for the civic center at the last bond election. He will do so again.

With the high price of wheat, bread prices are advancing. You will pay 1 cent more for each pound and a half loaf, beginning Monday. Eggs also are continuing around a nickel each. But milk has dropped 3 cents a quart, which is some consolation.

Milk diets will be popular, no doubt.

Silk cocoons of Europe do not supply enough silk for the needs of the people there.

Glendale Man Chosen L.A. Chamber Secretary

A. G. Arnold of 722 Kenneth road, has been appointed by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce to the vacancy caused by the death of Frank Wiggins, secretary of that organization for many years.

Mr. Arnold has been assistant secretary and superintendent of exhibits for the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce for several years. He came to California in 1919 and became associated with the Los Angeles organization at a time when it was planning an extensive industrial expansion. Mr. Arnold is considered an authority on engineering matters and has planned the many engineering projects of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. He has resided in Glendale a number of years.

Underground conduits to be constructed in Montreal, Canada, will cost $430,000.
